Rusk Rules Out Big Withdrawal of U. S. Troops From Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has ruled out any major withdrawal of U.S. troops from Germany. He said European allies have been assured "our forces will remain there as long as they are needed and wanted."

Rusk also told a news conference Friday he hopes members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can reach firm decisions soon on plans for removing NATO's military headquarters and bases from France

He said ways to improve East-West relations wil be discussed extensively when he and other allied foreign ministers gather in Brussels June 6 for a NATO Council meeting.

Security Conference

His comments came as an allied move was reported under way in Europe to respond to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A Gromyko's call for a Pan-European security conference.

Denmark plans to broach the idea at the Brussels meeting. Qualified diplomats in London said the United States and various other allied countries reacted cautiously but not adversely when notified of the Danish intention.

Any conference on European security would center on the continued division of Germany 26 years after the start of World War II. West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard spoke of this division Friday when he said

Arkansas Battles Over Darwin Law

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' anti-evolution law has been struck down on grounds it restricts freedom of learning and teaching. but the state plans to appeal the ruling to the State Supreme Court.

Chancery Court Judge Murray Reed held Friday the 1928 law was an unconstitutional restriction on the quest for knowledge. Reed's action cleared the way for legally teaching Charles Darwin's famous theory of evolution in public school classrooms

Atty Gen Bruce Bennett, defending the law as a bastion against what he called growing godlessness, said he would appeal Reed's ruling to the State Supreme Court, and, if necessary, to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Susan Epperson, 24, a biology teacher at Little Rock Central High School, started the court test earlier this year with a suit challenging the constitutionality of the law, which was adopted at a statewide election in 1928.

Prime Minister Orders Island's 100,000-Man Force Into State of Alert

HAVANA (AP) — Prime minister Fidel Castro said Friday night he is convinced the United States is planning "armed aggression" against Cuba and ordered a state of alert for Cuba's 100,000-man armed forces.

In a communique read over radio and television, Castro accused Secretary of State Dean Rusk of "practically threatening us with war" over armed clashes between U S. and Cuban forces along the perimeter of the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo in southeastern Cuba.

President Osvaldo Dorticos immediately called in the ambassadors of Communist countries and asked for volunteers "willing to aid Cuba against the threat of aggression by Yankee imperialism"

No Response

The ambassadors present included those of Communist China, the Soviet Union and North Viet Nam and the representative of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Viet Nam There was no report on the response to Dorticos' request

Castro said the U S. Defense Department lied in claiming that six Cuban soldiers penetrated the U.S. base Monday and exchanged fire with American guards.

Rusk told a news conference Friday the United States had protested the incident and demanded that such actions stop. A Defense Department spokesman said as far as is known no one was injured in the exchange of gunfire.

Castro said the Pentagon version "does not contain the slightest element of truth" and likened it to lies which he said "always precede the aggression of Yankee imperialists."

Bandits, Criminals

He denounced the "chiefs of Pentagon" as "a gang of reactionaries, bandits, criminals without scruples and cowards"

"Maybe by such improbable and false declarations they are trying to create psychological conditions to unleash an aggression against our country," he said.

Cuba will never "abandon custody of our territory, which is virtually what Rusk is demanding." Castro said. Instead, "What we will do immediately is put our revolutionary armed forces and all the people of Cuba in a state of alert."

He said the United States should not even bother to send a diplomatic note on such allega-

Neenah Man Killed by Train

Witnesses Say Erwin A. Erickson Crawled Into Path

NEENAH — A 47-year-old Neenah man was dead on arrival at Theda Clark Memorial Hospital around 9.45 p.m. Friday of injuries suffered when he was struck by a train at the Soo Line crossing between Adams and Caroline Streets.

Witnesses told police, Erwin A Erickson, 421 Adams St., was lying about three feet from the track and crawled into the path of the southbound Soo Line freight train.

The freight's engineer, Carl Blasnig, North Fond du Lac, said he saw the man along the track as the train approached. He sounded the whistle and attempted to stop the train which was traveling at about 22 miles per hour. Erickson reportedly crawled into the left side of the engine.

The train came to a halt about eight car lengths away.

Railroad personnel said they thought it was a piece of paper lying along the track until the train approached the crossing and they saw the man.

The body was taken to Westgor Funeral Home in Neenah where funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Lorge Says Banking Bill Fight Brought Fears, Harassment

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

MADISON — State Sen Gerald Lorge, (R-Bear Creek), revealed Friday on the floor of the State Senate that he has been harrassed, followed, and fears for the safety of his wife and children because of his leadership of forces fighting a bill that would allow the extension of branch banking in Wisconsin

Lorge said he has been followed while in the capital for the last two years, "by. I don't know whom" He added that the night before a decisive Senate vote stalling the measure last fall his hotel door was pounded on for an hour at 3 a m., and the telephone rang constantly for more than a half an hour.

The bill, one of the major controversial issues in the 1965 Legislature, was before the Senate again Friday after being defeated the day before Senate minority leader Richard Zaborski, (D-Milwaukee), asked that the bill be reconsidered, and Lorge objected.

It was during the exchange that followed that Lorge revealed what he called "the pressures being put on me."

"There is no question that some forces in this State really want branch banking," Lorge said

"They want it so badly that we not only need a grand jury but we also need protection for the members of this Legislature." he said, referring to a grand jury investigation of lobbying activities being conducted in Madison

He then reported the early morning harrassment, saying that it was on the morning of Nov 4, several hours before the branch banking bill failed to win Senate approval for consideration during that day's activities.

Feared for Family

Thursday it made it to the Senate floor and was defeated.

Lorge said that due to the pressures being applied on him he "feared for his kids, his family I live in the country," he said

"When people want a bill so badly that you can't sleep at night" he said, "the whole

Nikolay spearheaded opposition to the proposal, and offered several amendments that would have stricken the bonding provisions from the bill.

Nikolay repeatedly contended that allowing the state to bond for the interstate would lead to unlimited borrowing for any state project.

Assembly Speaker Robert Huber, D-West Allis, put his personal prestige on the line and left his rostrum to urge support of the compromise measure He asked the members to forget "political considerations and provincialism" and vote for the bill

Father Coughlin

Controversial Priest Of 30s Plans to Retire

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (AP) — Millions once heard his aggressive voice heap invective on Jews, "international bankers," Communists and President Franklin D Roosevelt.

But Friday the Rev. Charles E Coughlin was the picture of a quiet parish priest as he chatted with reporters about his retirement from the pastorate of his church, the Shrine of the Little Flower

"It was my decision in the sense that I would like to have a little time to enjoy with little children and the good things in life," he said.

The 74-year-old priest told reporters'

Making Way

"It's simply a matter of time for the old to make way for the new"

Only the day before Father Coughlin had told a news conference of plans to celebrate his 50 years in the priesthood next month

During one decade of those 50 years, he became one of the most controversial political figures of the Depression.

In 1926, 10 years after his ordination, Father Coughlin was sent to this Detroit suburb to found a Catholic parish.

In October of that year he preached his first radio sermon, confining himself to remarks on morality and Christian virtue. Eight persons wrote him letters after the broadcast, but soon his audience began to grow.

Political Topics

In the Thirties, he turned to political subjects in his sermons, and eventually his Sunday afternoon talks were carried on 47 stations and heard by more than 30 million people.

A favorite target was President Roosevelt. Father Coughlin had been a supporter of the early New Deal, but he was an isolationist, and as Europe moved toward World War II he broke with the president over foreign policy.

In one broadcast, he referred to the president as "the great

Chisox Obtain Causey for Danny Cater

Wayne Plays for A's Even After Deal Is Announced

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Kansas City traded Wayne Causey to Chicago for Danny Cater, announced it during a game with Baltimore, then played him against the Orioles 90 minutes later — possibly an unprecedented move.

"Sure, it's legal because we had an agreement with the White Sox we could use Causey in this game if we needed him," said Ed Lopat, Executive Vice President of the A's. "There is a two-hour time difference between Kansas City and Chicago, and we wanted to be fair to our writers and broadcasters."

Causey's play Friday had no effect on Baltimore's 4-2 victory. He walked as a pinch hitter in the eighth and played shortstop in the ninth.

But there was much speculation on what might have happened if Causey had homered to win the game — or thrown it away with an error.

"This is the first time I've ever seen it done or heard of it being done," said Alvin Dark, A's manager. "But I see nothing wrong with it since we had an agreement with the White Sox."

Of course, the announcement could have been delayed until after the game. No doubt this has happened many times without the players' knowledge of the trade.

"I knew it was coming, but I hated to see it," said Causey, 29-year-old team captain of the A's. "I hate to leave my friends. I bought a house here and had a winter job here."

Causey probably was the No. 1 favorite of the fans and players and oldest in years of service on the club. The A's obtained him Jan. 24, 1961 in a trade with Baltimore.

The trade wasn't announced to the fans until Causey took the field in the ninth. They gave him an ovation.

"I knew about the trade about halfway through the game," Causey said. "Yeah, I was surprised they played me after that. When I wasn't in the starting lineup I told Greenie (Dick Green), 'I'll bet this means I'm traded.'

"Well, I'm glad they waited until school was out. Now the whole family can move." He was to join the White Sox in New York tonight.

Dark said the A's made the trade because "Cater is a pretty doggone good hitter and we need someone who can drive in runs."

Cater, a right-handed batter, hit .270 with 14 homers and 55 runs batted in last year, his first full season in the majors. He hit .296 for 152 times at bat with Philadelphia in 1964. This season he's at .183.

"He'll start in left field for us," Lopat said. "He can also play first or third. We needed some right-handed power."

Causey, who can play third, short or second, hit .281 in 1963, .230 in 1964 and .261 last year.

Sadecki Flops Again As San Francisco Bows To Philadelphia, 9-2

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the San Francisco Giants acquired pitcher Ray Sadecki three weeks ago, Vice President Chub Feeney said:

"He should help us for a long time."

Someone, however, better start helping Sadecki.

The 25-year-old left-hander was battered from the mound for the fourth straight time since coming to the Giants as the Philadelphia Phillies crushed the Giants 9-2 Friday night.

The Giants sent slugger Orlando Cepeda to St. Louis for Sadecki May 8, and there were many who felt the deal clinched the National League pennant for San Francisco.

Giant pitching coach Larry Jansen didn't say that, but he recalled the 1964 season when Sadecki won 20 games in helping the Cardinals win the pennant.

Strong Curve

"He had a superb change of pace and a hard, rising fast ball," Jansen said. "He fouled up the hitter's timing by giving them fast balls, a strong curve and then the expertly thrown change."

But Sadecki hasn't been able to foul up anyone lately.

In four starts with the Giants he has lasted only 13 1-3 innings while allowing 11 runs for an astronomical 7.62 earned run average.

Take away his first start in which the New York Mets scored three unearned runs off him in five innings, and his ERA is an even more astronomical 12.38.

His latest effort ended before he could get anyone out in the fifth inning. The Phillies already had scored three runs in the first four innings, and when John Callison and Dick Groat singled in the fifth, Manager Herman Franks decided Sadecki needed help.

The Giants may need some, too. They've won only five of their last 13 games, and they must do without their No. 2 pitcher, Gaylord Perry, for the next 15 days. Perry, suffering from a sore ankle, was placed on the disabled list Friday night.

In other National League games, Los Angeles blanked New York 4-0, Pittsburgh whipped Houston 6-0, Cincinnati edged St Louis 6-5 and Atlanta defeated Chicago 5-3.

Score 6 Runs

After getting rid of Sadecki, the Phillies went on to score six runs in the fifth, four on run-scoring singles by Bill White, Bob Uecker, Bobby Wine and Cookie Rojas. Willie McCovey and Tom Haller homered for the Giants.

Claude Osteen broke a personal four-game losing streak, gaining his first victory in a month with a three-hitter over the Mets. Los Angeles scored all four of its runs in the sixth inning with the help of errors by Bill Murphy, Ken Boyer and Dick Stuart.

Bob Veale and Pete Mikkelsen combined for a five-hitter against Houston. Bill Mazeroski and Willie Stargell led the Pittsburgh attack, each hitting a homer and driving in two runs.

Cincinnati's first three hits off St. Louis' Art Mahaffey were homers — two by Vada Pinson

Pott Praises The Weather In Oklahoma

Two-Day Tourney Leader Amazed by Absence of Wind

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Johnny Pott, the two-day leader in the $57,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament, isn't a bit unhappy with the Oklahoma weather.

The winds that "come whistling down the plain" have been whispering a soft background melody as Pott, 30, has fashioned a four-stroke lead with an 11-under par 133 total for 36 holes over the 7,173-yard Quail Creek Golf and Country Club course.

"The weather has been beautiful," Pott said in near amazement. "There has been no wind at all, and the greens are in perfect shape."

One of the two men four strokes behind Pott — 23-year-old Tom Weiskopf — also was impressed by the lack of wind. Weiskopf said he was nearly blown off the tee at Quail Creek in National Open qualifying earlier this week.

Pott's four stroke lead equals the largest 36-hole margins of this year's tour. Both times previously, the leader has faded.

With Weiskopf at 137 was Tony Lema, who was almost two strokes closer, but was also almost out of the tournament entirely.

Lema sustained a two stroke penalty for an improper drop from ground under repair, and had he signed his scorecard without declaring the penalty, it would have meant disqualification.

But Quail Creek pro Ernie Vossler called the mistake to Lema's attention, and he took the penalty which wiped out a sparkling 66 for the day.

Three golfers — Don Massengale, Bruce Devlin and Butch Baird — are at 140, followed by the rest of the field of 78 qualifiers ranging from 141 to 148.

AHS Finishes Fourth in Golf Sectional

OCONTO — The Oconto and Green Bay East high school golf teams qualified for the state meet by finishing 1-2 in the sectional test Friday.

Appleton High School finished fourth in the 14-team field. It marked only the second time in nine years that the Terrors haven't qualified for the state meet.

The team totals (best four individual cards) were: Oconto, 321; GBE, 329; Marinette, 338; AHS, 344; Antigo and Green Bay West, 345; Kaukauna and Shawano, 352; Kimberly, 354; Oconto Falls, 358; Preble, 866; Green Bay Southwest, 368; Niagara, 385; and Waubeno, 408.

The medalist was Oconto's Bob Hermsen, with a 78. Dick Steward, also of Oconto, was next with 79. They played on their home course, which is a 9-hole layout.

Leading the Terrors was Jim Berkvam with an 84 (43-41). Steve Winter had an 85; Ollie Champeau, 86; and Art Zuleger, 89. AHS sophomore John Gall shot a 53 the first time but fired a 39 the second time around. His score did not count in the final tabulation.

Twins Shade Foxes In 11 Innings, 3 to 2

Disputed Play Snaps Deadlock

BY TERRY GALVIN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Wisconsin Rapids' Twins pushed across a somewhat tainted tally in the top half of the 11th inning at Goodland Field Friday night to hand the Midwest League-leading Fox Cities Foxes their second consecutive loss, 3-2.

Despite the setback, the Foxes retained their 1½-game lead. Wisconsin Rapids, however, moved up into a second-place tie (on percentage) with Burlington, which lost to Dubuque.

Southpaw Mickey Abarbanel will take the mound for a return engagement with the Twins at 8 p.m. today. Abarbanel is the Foxes' strikeout artist, having logged 64 en route to a 4-1 record.

The much-debated and feverishly disputed play that turned the tide in last night's encounter occurred with two out in the 11th inning.

Hooker Relieves

John Counsell flied to Ron Lolich to open the top of the 11th and Foxes' starter (and victim) Greg Bennett issued a walk to Dick Littlejohn. Willie Hooker came on in relief. Winning pitcher Ken Wirell, who fanned 13 and walked only three, then grounded out to short, with Littlejohn advancing to second.

Survived On Error

Ezell Carter survived on shortstop Al Fitzmorris' error to leave runners on first and third. Then Gerry Fuchs grounded to Hooker whose throw to "Deacon" Jones at first was thought to be late by base umpire Jim Stiener.

Normally a mild-mannered individual, Jones vehemently protested Stiener's call, as did the remainder of the Foxes' infield and Manager Stan Wasiak, but to no avail, of course.

Thus, when the 5-minute uprising had cleared, Fuchs' grounder entered the record books as an infield single, with Littlejohn scoring the decisive run on the play.

Bennett Pitches Well

Bennett pitched extremely well after a shaky start in the first three innings in which the Twins collected six hits. The huge (6-7) righthander gave up just three hits from the fourth inning until he headed for the showers in the 11th and certainly deserved a far better fate.

Dennis Tucker opened on the hill for the Twins and, after the Foxes had scored once on Jim Maness' bloop triple that bounced exactly on the right field line and Jones subsequent ground out, was forced to leave the game with an injury.

Ken Wirell, now 2-1 for the season, took over and yielded just seven hits the rest of the way. The Twins' 10 safeties were singles, while four of the Foxes' eight hits went for extra bases.

Wisconsin Rapids knotted the count at 1-1 in the second inning when Neil McPhee and Steve Free singled. McPhee advanced to third on John Counsell's fly to center and scored on Ron Lolich's throwing error after Little john had flied out to left.

Strategy Backfires

The Twins took a 2-1 lead in the sixth when McPhee and Free again opened with singles. Counsell forced Free at second and Littlejohn was walked intentionally to load the bases, but the free pass backfired when Bennett followed by walking Twins' pitcher Wirell to force in a run.

The Foxes wasted no time in squaring accounts as Bill Melton, Fox Cities' version of the slugging Ozark Ike of comic fame, cracked a 1-hop double off the left-center field wall. Melton scored on Al Fitzmorris' double down the left field line.

But Wirell toughened considerably thereafter, allowing the Foxes just one hit the rest of the way and retiring the last nine men in succession. Wirell struck out the side in the bottom of the 11th.

Neenah Qualifies For 5 Berths in State Track Test

2 Menasha Athletes Win in Sectional; Zoelle, Seifert Star

BY GEORGE MANCOSKY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

FOND DU LAC — Twin city athletes collected four firsts in the Fond du Lac WIAA Class A sectional here Friday night and will be represented in six events and one relay at the state track meet at Monona Grove next Saturday.

Neenah qualified four boys in four events, plus a relay team and Menasha two boys in two events.

Fond du Lac won the tightly-contested team race with 46 points. Neenah and Oshkosh each had 42, Sheboygan North 39, Menasha 26, Beaver Dam 22 and Sheboygan South 8.

Oshkosh qualified four boys in four events plus two relays. North will have four boys in five events and one relay. Fond du Lac four boys in five events, Beaver Dam three in three and South one in one.

Neenah victors were unbeaten Wayne Peotter in the 440 and Terry Olson, mile. Bob Pierce was second in the shot put and Bruce Rasmussen runnerup in the 880. The mile relay team also took a second.

Bluejay winners were Dennis Klapper, low hurdles, and Steve Jansen, long jump.

Fondy's John Zoelle, defending state 100-yard dash champion, and Tim Seifert of Sheboygan North were the only double winners. Zoelle won the 100 in 10.3 seconds and the 220 in :22.3.

Mighty Throws

Seifert had mighty throws of 60 feet, ½ inch in the shot put and 167 feet, 8 inches in the discus.

As expected, Oshkosh's Bill Oaks repeated as pole vault champion with a hoist of 13 feet, 8 inches.

Several other defending champions weren't so fortunate. Klapper had to settle for fourth place in the 440 and teammate Dan Hoks was fourth in the 220. Neenah's Jim Koepke, defending champion in the high jump, also placed fourth.

Peotter won the 440 by about .4 of a second over Beaver Dam's Nickerson. The latter was clocked in 52.3 while Neenah sophomore Jim Bemowski was third in 52.35.

Olson won his fifth straight mile race in 4:36.5 while Rasmussen, competing with a pulled hamstring, barely was edged by Fondy's Wallner in the 880. The winner was timed in 2:02.2 to 2:02.5 for the Neenah senior. The Rockets' Larry Lindsey was fourth in 2:06.2.

Sets School Mark

Pierce set a school record of 54 feet, 4 inches in placing second to Seifert in the shot put. He was third in the discus with a pitch of 144 feet, 10½ and third in the long jump at 20 feet, 7 inches, missing a second place tie by one inch.

Neenah's 880 relay team of Tom Bachhuber, Jim Burton, Dan Meyer and Peotter posted a 1:33.3, in placing second to Oshkosh, which won in 1:32.5.

Klapper upset Fox River Valley Conference low hurdles champion George Dahl of Oshkosh, in 20.5.

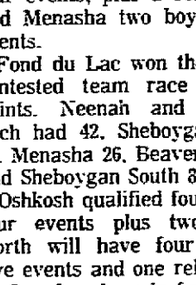

Jansen went 31 feet, 2 inches to win the long jump. He cleared 5 feet, 9 inches for third place in the high jump.

Four Entries

The Bluejays entered only four performers and in addition to Jansen and Klapper, Mike Wilms was third in the 220 and fourth in the 100 and Hoks fifth

Long-Time Rivals Play FRVL Feature

Kaukauna, LC-K Duel for Lead Sunday

Two long-time Fox River Valley Baseball League rivals will clash in the circuit's feature game Sunday afternoon.

Little Chute-Kimberly, featuring one of the league's most potent hitting attacks, will entertain the Kaukauna Klubbers. As if it weren't enough to pit these rivals against each other, an added attraction is that both teams are unbeaten. It will also be the home opener for LC-K.

The teams posted identical victories (4-2) in last week's game. LC-K took the measure of Two Rivers, and Kaukauna defeated Fond du Lac.

Kick Off Season

In addition to the Papermaker-Klubber contest, the Menasha Macs will kick off their season by playing host to Two Rivers. Fond du Lac draws a bye Sunday.

Manager Rog Gerrits, of LC-K, will probably have Larry Huebner as his starting pitcher with "Whitey" Neinhaus also available. Huebner started last Sunday's game and Neinhaus picked up the win in relief. Huebner starred with Freedom last year leading the team to the league championship.

Kaukauna's manager, Carl Bowers, is expected to send Leigh Wachel or Ken Smits against the Papermakers. Wachel, a left-hander, looked sharp in setting down Fond du Lac last Sunday and he likely will get the starting nod.

Hitting Standouts

LC-K's lineup includes hitting standouts such as Floyd Hammen, Dick Zeratsky, Jim Vande Wettering, Lee Westphal, and Gene Peerenboom. The Kaukauna hitters are currently being paced by Dick Mulry, Bowers, John Lambie and Fred and Jim Steger.

Wachel limited Fond du Lac to three hits and fanned 11 batters in last week's Klubber victory.

Dennis Sinkula is expected to start for Two Rivers against the Menasha Macs. Sinkula went the distance against LC-K last Sunday and scattered eight hits before losing in the ninth.

Griffith Duels Archer July 13

Appeals Athletic Unit's Ruling on 'Welter' Crown

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Emile Griffith wasn't kidding when he promised to be a fighting champion five years ago.

The Virgin Islander already has had 12 title fights since he first won the welterweight crown.

He has two fights in the works today, including a middleweight defense against Joey Archer at Madison Square Garden July 13, and a possible third bout in the making for September.

Fight No. 2 is against the New York State Athletic Commission and the World Boxing Association for automatically stripping him of the welterweight title when he won the middleweight title from Nigeria's Dick Tiger on April 25.

Griffith has appealed the commission's ruling to the State Supreme Court.

"I don't see why I can't hold both titles," Griffith said Thursday when the Archer fight was announced. "I'm ready to defend both. As a matter of fact my managers are negotiating for a welterweight title fight with Kitten Hayward at Las Vegas in September.

'A Long Way'

"I don't duck anyone. Joey wanted to fight and now he has his chance. Fifteen rounds. Joey, is going to be a long way to go."

"I've been waiting a long time for this fight — three years," said Archer, a 28-year-old New Yorker. "I don't intend to blow my opportunity."

Griffith gave away 9½ pounds when he beat Tiger. He will probably be outweighed the same amount by Archer.

Archer has a 46-2 record. He has only eight knockouts to his credit.

Griffith's record is 50-7, including 18 knockouts.

Detroit Lifts Gail Cogdill's Suspension

End Draws $1,000 Fine for Making Critical Speech

DETROIT (AP) — Gail Cogdill is back in the good graces of the Detroit Lions, but is out $1,000.

The National Football League club lifted Friday the suspension on Cogdill that lasted 108 nonfootball playing days and said it had fined him $1,000 for criticizing Head Coach Harry Gilmer and several teammates in a speech at Flint, Mich., last Feb. 3.

The clubs policy is to send camp invitations around the end of May so players can plan their vacations and let off-season employers know when they'll be leaving. The Lions took the opportunity to end Cogdill's suspension. Camp opens July 18.

The 29-year-old end made his remarks to a women's club in Flint. He made a public apology to Gilmer and the team after being indefinitely suspended for the remarks.

Sagging White Sox Are Like Pre-Houk Yanks in 4-1 Defeat

Stottlemyre's 3-Hitter Hands Chicago 10th Loss in 12 Games

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Remember how sad the New York Yankees looked about a month ago?

They weren't hitting, they weren't fielding and they weren't winning. Then along came new Manager Ralph Houk and presto, the Yankees were winners again.

Well, a replica of the old edition showed up at Yankee Stadium Friday night. Happily for Houk, they were wearing Chicago White Sox uniforms.

The sagging Sox sank past the surging Yankees into eighth place in the American League as Mel Stottlemyre pitched a three-hitter for a 4-1 New York triumph.

It was the 10th loss in the last 12 games for Chicago, and they made it easy for New York with three errors helping the Yankees to two unearned runs.

That was all Stottlemyre needed. He set the Sox down on just three singles and retired 19 in a row at one stretch. He lost his shutout with two out in the ninth when Roy White dropped a fly ball for a two-base error.

"This was the best I've been this season," said Stottlemyre. He struck out eight and walked only two. The performance lowered his earned run average to 1.91 and gave him a 5-3 record for the season.

7 Out of 8

The victory was the seventh in the last eight games for New York and gave Houk a 13-4 record in the three weeks since he took over for Johnny Keane. Stottlemyre has turned in four of the victories.

Elsewhere in the American League Friday night, Cleveland edged slumping Minnesota 5-4, Baltimore downed Kansas City 4-2, Washington nipped Boston 5-4 and California shaded Detroit 3-2.

The Yankees scored their first run in the opening inning on consecutive singles by White, Bobby Richardson and Mickey Mantle. Errors by Al Weis and Gene Freese led to two more New York runs in the second and Tom Tresh homered for the final run in the eighth.

Rocky Colavito's ninth-inning single drove in Cleveland's winning run as the Twins dropped their seventh in the last eight.

Minnesota had tied the score at 4-4 on two runs in the eighth, with singles by Don Mincher and Zoilo Versalles the key hits.

But Max Alvis opened the ninth with a single, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on Colavito's hit as Cleveland won its fourth straight.

Bunker Wins

Andy Etchebarren drove in two runs and scored another as Baltimore downed Kansas City. Stu Miller saved the victory for Wally Bunker, who won his fourth.

Etchebarren's seventh inning single broke a 2-2 tie and put the Orioles ahead to stay. Baltimore added another run in the eighth on a passed ball with the bases loaded.

Washington rallied for two runs in the bottom of the ninth to beat the Red Sox. Bob Saverine and Don Lock delivered the run-scoring hits that wiped out a 4-3 Boston lead. Rookie George Scott had put the Red Sox ahead with a two-run homer in the eighth.

Willie Smith had a hand in all three California runs, driving home two with a double in the first inning and scoring the final one after singling in the fourth inning.

Marcellino Lopez got ninth inning help from Bob Lee to nail down the victory, his third in seven decisions.

Steady Mel Stottlemyre Key to Yank Revival

By MIKE RATHET

NEW YORK (AP) — Mel Stottlemyre is about as colorful as the New York Yankees' home uniforms, and they're a gaudy combination of black and white.

He doesn't have sideburns as long as Cleveland's Sam McDowell. He doesn't drink as much soda pop as Detroit's Denny McLain. He doesn't sing as well as Minnesota's Jim Grant. He doesn't get as much acclaim as the three other pitchers.

And he doesn't care.

"I'm content," he said Friday night after beating the Chicago White Sox 4-1 on a three-hitter. "I know I don't say much. But that's me. I'm just here trying to stay."

Did Stottlemyre think he was as good as McDowell or McLain?

"I really don't know," he said. "At times they are better. At times I think I'm better than them."

And that was as far as Stottlemyre would go. Yankee Manager Ralph Houk went further.

"No, he's not colorful," said Houk. "He just wins.

"What I really like about him," Houk went on, "is that he can allow eight or nine hits and still hold you to two runs. He's cool, he never gets upset and he never loses his poise.

Can Hit, Too

"Don't forget he's a good hitter — and people tend to forget that's important — He's a good base runner, and he's a good athlete.

"And he's as steady a pitcher as there is in the league."

Stottlemyre proved that against the White Sox. He allowed only singles, set down 19 men in order at one stretch, and only lost his shutout when a dropped fly ball by Roy White in the ninth inning let in an unearned run.

The victory lifted Stottlemyre's record to 5-3 and lowered his earned run average to 1.91. It also pulled the Yankees into sixth place with their seventh victory in the last eight games and their 13th in 17 games under Houk.

Judy Lee Wins Queens Pin Tourney

Los Angeles Kegler Emerges From Losers' Bracket to Triumph

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — "I can't believe it," I really can't.'

These were little Judy Lee's words after she had won the Queens Tournament of the Women's International Bowling Congress Friday night.

The 26-year-old Chinese-American from Los Angeles became the first bowler in the tournament's six-year history to emerge from the losers' bracket and win the event.

The 5-foot-4, 130-pound Miss Lee defeated Nancy Peterson, 33, of Phoenix, Ariz., 771-742, in the tense finals before a packed house. The victory was worth $2,405 to Miss Lee, plus a wrist watch and a trophy. Miss Peterson won $1,865.

It was the third four-game match of the day between the two relatively unknown bowlers. Miss Peterson won the first match in the morning session 679-663 to push Miss Lee into the losers' bracket. Miss Lee fought her way back with a 716-713 victory over Lorry Rocka of Hayward, Calif.

Rounding out the top eight of the tournament, with their winnings, were Miss Rocka, $1,465; Collette Berry, San Antonio, Tex., $1,305; Virgie Verdigets, New Orleans, $1,125; Sandra Menken of Islip Terrace, N.Y., $1,025; Bobbie Flum of Ozone Park, N.Y., $925; Judy Cook, Grandview, Mo., $865.

Upton Bell to Direct Personnel For Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP) — Upton Bell, son of the late Commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League, was appointed personnel director of the Baltimore Colts Friday.

The 28-year-old Bell succeeds Keith Molesworth, who died earlier this year. Bell has been with the Colts since 1961 in the ticket office and as assistant to Molesworth.

The Colts also announced hiring of Ed Rutledge as a scout. A former end at Western Kentucky, Rutledge is a former high school football coach at Danville and Paducah and assistant at the University of Kentucky.

Singer Nears PCL Strikeout Record

VANCOUVER (AP) — Bill Singer struck out 13 batters in pitching the Spokane Indians to a 2-0 Pacific Coast League victory over the Vancouver Mounties Thursday night.

Singer came within one strikeout of tying one of the oldest records in Coast League history. The strikeout record of 19 was set in 1905 by Charlie Shields of Seattle.

Gale Sayers' Brother Signs With Bears

CHICAGO (AP) — As if one Sayers wasn't enough, the Chicago Bears have added another to their roster for the 1966 National Football League season.

He is Roger Sayers, older brother of Gale, the all-NFL back and 1965 Rookie of the Year.

Roger is 24 and Gale will be 23 Monday.

Roger, also a halfback, is a 155-pounder who played at Omaha University, averaging 7.2 yards on 262 carries during his career.

He also averaged 18.4 on 34 kickoff returns and 21 on 16 punt runbacks. He caught 21 passes for a 19.8 average.

NHL Names Hull Most Valuable

MONTREAL (AP) — Bobby Hull is the National Hockey League's Most Valuable Player for the second straight year, but he has a long way to go to equal the number of Hart Trophies won by Detroit's Gordie Howe.

Hull, who broke one-season records by scoring 54 goals and collecting 97 points, was named winner of the Hart Trophy for 1965-66 Thursday. The 38-year-old Howe, six-time MVP, was third in the voting behind Jean Beliveau of Montreal.

Marty Keough Has Operation

CINCINNATI (AP) — Atlanta Braves outfielder Marty Keough was reported in good condition here Friday after undergoing surgery for removal of air from around a lung.

Keough was taken to Christ Hospital during Wednesday night's Atlanta-Cincinnati game. He had complained of sharp chest pains while sitting in the dugout.

Hospital spokesmen did not say how long Keough would be held here.

Orioles' Brown Comes Through Operation Well

BALTIMORE (AP) — Catcher Dick Brown of the Baltimore Orioles underwent neurosurgery in Sinai Hospital Friday morning for the second time in less than three months.

A spokesman for the Orioles said Brown came through the exploratory operation well and will remain in the recovery and intensive care rooms of the hospital for the next few days.

Attending physicians said following this period the 31-year-old catcher will remain under observation in the hospital for an undetermined period of time.

A golf-ball size benign tumor was removed from the base of Brown's brain March 7.

He had complained of headaches before the first operation and Friday's operation took place after he had reported a recurrence.

Giants to Put Perry on 15-Day Disabled List

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Gaylord Perry, the No. 2 pitcher of the San Francisco Giants, will go on the 15-day disabled list if the National League gives permission.

The Giants asked for permission Friday.

Perry severely sprained his left ankle Tuesday night while sliding into second base during a two-run third-inning rally.

He stayed in the game against Pittsburgh and triggered the winning three-run rally in the seventh before leaving for a pinch-runner. The 5-2 victory boosted his record to 6-1.

Superior '9' Bows In NAIA Tourney

STORM Lake, Iowa (AP) — Missouri Valley pulled out a pair of victories Friday in the double-elimination NAIA Area 4 baseball playoffs here.

Wesleyan edged Winona, Minn., state 3-2 in Friday's other game.

Three more games were on tap for today.

Superior plays Winona in the first of three games. The winner will play Iowa Wesleyan in the second game and the winner of that will meet Missouri Valley for the title.

A first defeat for Missouri Valley would require a fourth game.

Braves Case

State Supreme Court Has 8 Boxes of Papers to Examine

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Wisconsin Supreme Court justices have box after box of papers to plow through to prepare themselves for baseball's appeal of a lower court ruling finding the game in violation of the state antitrust law.

Eight boxes the size of beer cases were delivered to the high court Friday as a prelude to the hearing on the appeal. Three of the cartons contained the 7,000 pages of testimony taken during the month-long Circuit Court trial before Judge Elmer W. Roller.

The other boxes contained other documents accumulated before, during and after the trial.

The trial officially closed April 13 when Roller found the Atlanta Braves and the National League in violation of the law for abandoning Milwaukee as a major league city.

He ordered the Braves to return to Milwaukee unless the National League granted the city a 1967 expansion team.

Roller agreed to suspend his order pending the Supreme Court ruling on the appeal.

The high court will hear the appeal June 9. A decision is expected in early July.

Also filed with the Supreme Court Friday were 62 pages of defense arguments seeking to show that Roller erred when he found against baseball.

Bronkalla Leads At Mid-Vallee

KAUKAUNA — Leo Bronkalla fired a 39 for low gross honors in the Mid-Vallee Men's Golf league.

Runnerup honors went to Peter Herber, Bill Tordoer and Art Meulemans, with 31, followed by Herber and Roy Meulemans (33). Tied for first in the American League with scores of 34 were Jules Hartjes, Bob Geenen and Jack Diedrich. National League leader is Art Meulemans with 43 and Carl Newhouse with 37 is runnerup.

Gene DeGroot won for being closest to the pin on No. 3. Other special event winners were Dave Brick, Cliff Hinkens and Jim Van Boxtel.

Claude Has 2.22 ERA

Dodgers Finally Get Osteen Some Runs; Loss Streak Ends

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Claude Osteen pitched the more than a season for the weak hitting Los Angeles Dodgers before he adopted a philosophy teammate Sandy Koufax has lived by for years.

"All I can do is try to pitch a shutout everytime I start," Osteen said Friday night, after throttling the New York Mets with a three-hitter, 4-0.

The performance broke Osteen's streak of four straight losses, gave him his first victory since April 29 and extended the Dodger winning streak to four games.

Gets Mail

Osteen says he is getting a lot of sympathetic fan mail these days because he has only a 5-5 record to go with a spectacular 2.22 earned run average.

"I think I've pitched well this spring," he said, "but most of the time I've had to come out of games in the late innings before we've ever scored a run. They pat me on the back and say, 'Nice going, Claude,' but still I get beat.

"I know I'm better than a .500 pitcher, but the records don't prove it."

In 11 starts encompassing 81 innings this spring, Osteen's mates have backed him with only 20 runs. In his five losses, they've scored four runs while he has been on the mound.

For awhile Friday it looked as if Osteen's luck would continue to run bad. He was locked in a scoreless duel with right-hander Jack Hamilton, 4-4, until the sixth inning when three Met errors helped the Dodgers score all their runs.

Nicholson Wins Drag Race Event

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Don Nicholson of Atlanta, Ga., powered his 1966 Mercury to a speed of 163.6 miles per hour in :8 8 seconds to capture the factory-experimental superstock division event at the United Drag Races Association's national championship Friday.

The competition continues through Memorial Day.

Al Fontanini of Glenview, Ill., won the superstock division. He reached a speed of 150 miles per hour in :9.9 seconds in a 1965 Plymouth.

LAKE PROPERTY

CAMPERS-TRAILER OWNERS
AND NATURE LOVERS
How often have you yearned for a nice large lake lot in a PRIMEVAL forest to have for a weekend retreat, vacation, or year round use? Then, only to be told by the developer that they are restricted and can allow only modern permanent homes. We have heard this story too often. If you are really interested in a change of all this, PLEASE READ THIS TRUE STORY. We have found a large complex of land and water in the "North Country" of Wisconsin, consisting of a lake with over 25,000 ft. of undeveloped shoreline, and having over 1,200 acres of beautiful PRIVATE HIGHLAND FOREST surrounding the lakeshore. THIS IS NOT ALL, as the famous PINE RIVER with over 14,000 CANOEING and TROUT FISHING waters, are also on this fabulous tract of land. This lovely clear water lake, with two inlets and an outlet is "loaded" with Walleyes. The area abounds in wildlife. We are able to offer this priceless Lakeshore Forest area to the 1st ONE HUNDRED families that apply this season, for the unheard of price of ONLY $200 ANNUAL LEASE PER YEAR. Renewable option is provided. You will receive a 100 ft. PRIVATE LAKESHORE SITE, plus a condominium leasehold interest in all the river frontage and all the highland forest to "play in". IF THIS TRUE STORY INTERESTS YOU, drop us a note, call us, or come and see us at the Wautoma, Wisconsin Office, to discuss the private details of this unusual and rare opportunity. A full set of colored slides were taken in October of 1965 and are on hand for showing. OWNER ON PREMISES MAY 28 THRU 30 and JUNE 4 and 5 TO ASSIST YOU IN PICKING YOUR OWN LAKE SHORE SITE. New Alarm Proposed For Outagamie County

Executive Committee to Recommend Board Approval of Updated Radio Signal System

Replacement of the Outagamie County Civil Defense alarm setup with a modern radio signal system is proposed in a resolution that will come before the Outagamie County Board in June.

The resolution, signed Thursday by members of the county board's executive committee, calls for three bids for the purchase and installation of the system.

Telephone lines presently are rented and comprise what is known as a "land line" alarm system.

The system, which transmits signals over the lines to civil defense sirens throughout the county, is not "fail safe" according to Howard J. Rathbun, Outagamie County — Appleton Civil defense director.

False Alarms

He said there have been problems with interference on the lines setting off false alarms, especially in the northern and western parts of Outagamie County. Rathbun said there has not been a problem in Appleton.

Under the radio control system, Rathbun said, signals would be generated from a designated number of stations to siren receivers. The signals would be dual control and coded, the civil defense head stated.

The existing county highway radio system could be utilized for the new system, according to Rathbun. The purchase of equipment would represent the primary expense. Cost of the project would be paid for by matched federal government and local funds.

Federal Approval

The federal government in November approved the project application, submitted by the Joint Outagamie County-Appleton Civil Defense Committee, according to Rathbun.

Many areas of the state are on the radio control system, he said.

A provision in the resolution states that the radio system would result in savings of up to $20,000 over a 10-year-period.

Begin Hunt for New Director of Public Works

Appleton Officials to Accept Applications Until Late July

City officials began their hunt Friday for a new public works director to replace Robert W. Bues whose resignation is effective July 31.

Mayor George Buckley and City Clerk Elden Broehm conferred Friday morning with Personnel Director Jerry Rusch and decided to accept applications for the job until the latter part of July.

The works director post has a salary range of $11,200 to $13,380. The State Bureau of Personnel has been contacted and will conduct the examinations.

"We want to get the best man available for the job," Buckley said.

Change Deadline

Originally, the mayor and clerk had thought of a June 27 deadline for accepting applications and because of publication timing problems had not intended to advertise the position in the national public works trade magazines.

But a decision was finally arrived at to put advertisements in the national publications, hitting July issues.

In this way, Buckley and Broehm agreed, there would be no limitations on the number of applicants and felt the more, the better.

It has been estimated it will take about three months to pick a new director. Among the requirements are that applicants have a degree in engineering, five years of practical experience and three years of municipal public works background.

Surprise Resignation

When Bues made his surprise resignation announcemen earlier in the week, the mayor and street-sanitation committee concurred in his feeling that divisions within the department would function as usual.

Donald Bangs is the assistant public works director and Frank Keuler, city engineer in charge of the latter division. It was indicated they would bear the brunt of the administrative load until Bues' successor is picked.

Bues has not written his formal resignation letter as yet but it is expected to be before the council Wednesday night.

(In Thursday's Post-Crescent a headline erroneously referred to the director as "William Bues." It should have read Robert W. Bues.)

Future Plans Indefinite

Bues says his future plans are indefinite although he intends to seek private employment.

Bues, who resides at 431 E. Longview Drive, is married and has three children. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1961 with a degree in engineering and is a registered professional engineer with the Wisconsin Registration Board of Architects and Professional Engineers.

He had been a civil engineer in water construction and plans division of the Milwaukee Public Works Department from 1951-55 and from 1955-60 was senior engineer at Wauwatosa.

Bues, military experience from 1945-47 was as a special agent in the U.S. Air Force Counter Intelligence Corps. From 1951-53, he served in the U.S. Corps of Engineers with the rank of captain.

In 1959 Bues supervised, trained and administered motor and heavy equipment pool operations and maintenance in Korea on airfield construction and maintenance projects.

Buckley Won't Veto Council Action on Welfare Director

Mayor George Buckley says he has decided against vetoing council action directing the city welfare director to attend monthly meetings of the City Welfare Directors Association of Wisconsin.

Previously, the mayor said he was considering such action.

Buckley is thus avoiding another headon collision with the city council which has upheld its convention policy in face of criticism from the mayor.

Welfare Director Merton Ehricke is president of the Wisconsin Association.

The mayor says he intends to send a letter to the council expressing his displeasure with permitting Ehricke to attend the monthly conferences.

Sheriff's Investigator Okayed

Outagamie to Hire 2 Traffic Patrolmen

Steps will be taken soon to hire two men for the Outagamie County traffic patrol and an investigator for the sheriff's department.

The county board's law enforcement committee voted unanimously Friday afternoon to recommend to the executive committee that two patrolmen be hired, by July if possible, to replace veterans Charles Steidl, who will retire Tuesday, and Ronald Decker who left the department for health reasons several months ago.

On a motion by John Schreiter of Appleton, the committee voted to authorize attendance for the two new men at the Wisconsin State Patrol training academy at Camp McCoy in August. The last five new patrolman hired by the county have attended the state patrol training session.

Investigator to Retire

Sheriff Calvin Spice reminded the committee that Lt. Jack Frenzl will retire as a county investigator July 1, and suggested that action be taken now to seek a replacement, since the retirement comes during the busy vacation period.

Frenzl indicated some time ago he intends to retire next month.

Schreiter moved to initiate action to have the position filled. Civil service procedures will be used in hiring a replacement, committee members said.

The committee also approved the appointment of Patrolman Stanley Arnold as acting sergeant in the traffic department.

The consenting vote came after a recommendation by Sgt. Lowell Veitch, acting department head, who stated that his office is short of supervisory help. The appointment will become effective June 1 and will be for not more than 60 days, according to Civil Service provisions.

130 Pints Is Blood Quota Set for Waupaca

WAUPACA — A total of 130 pints of blood is the quota for the Red Cross Bloodmobile visit here June 13, according to Mayor Llyod Matheson, chairman. The Bloodmobile will be at the Armory from noon to 6 p.m.

Along with serving as general chairman of this bloodmobile visit, Matheson also has offered to solicit donors from business and industry.

Mrs Fred Mannel is chairman of ward donor solicitation and Mrs. Julius Johnson is worker recruitment chairman Mrs. Allan Pohl will recruit the nurses to work at the center and Morris Smith chapter secretary, the doctors Mr and Mrs Walter Ciura will seek volunteer donors in the Town of Dayton and members of the Jaycetes have offered to operate the canteen and juice tables.

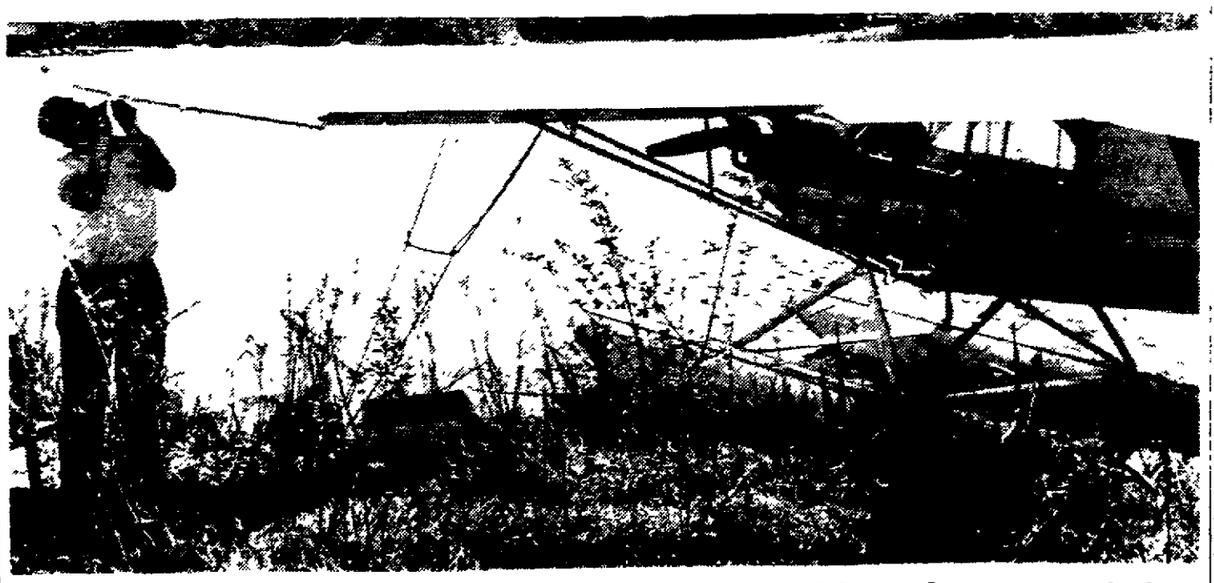

Nels Rasmussen and Aage Hansen will prepare the armory and Mrs. Maurice Frieburger will handle publicity.

Smith said the quota is an increase over last year due to the continous need for blood and blood derivatives in Viet Nam.

He reported that the Waupaca chapter was tops in its state zone in blood collection in 1965, with contributions 112 per cent of quotas.

Portage County was next at 105 per cent. The bloodmobile has made two visits in the chapter area already this year. In January the Manawa donors collected 159 pints on a 135-pint quota and in April, Iola residents contributed 67 pints on a 60-pint quota.

It was also pointed out that 315 pints of blood were used in the 12 month period ending March, at Riverside Hospital here.

FWD, Union Reach Contract Settlement

2-Year Pact Approves 26 Cents Total

CLINTONVILLE — Members of local 815 Allied Industrial Workers, AFL-CIO, voted acceptance of a two year agreement with the FWD Corp. retroactive to May 23 at the meeting Friday afternoon at the high school gym.

This action follows rejection of two contract proposals earlier this month. The negotiations involve about 1,100 union members.

Accepted agreement provides for 16 cents an hour pay increase retroactive to May 23 with an additional 10 cents increase effective May 22, 1967.

Hourly classification schedules will be revised to provide for more uniformity in rate increases and the schedules will be shortened considerably to reduce time necessary for every employe to meet the maximum of each labor grade.

Retirement Plan

An amendment to the FWD retirement plan is included which provides an increase for monthly benefits from $1.25 to $1.75 for each year of previous service. Another increase to $2 will become effective Sept. 30, 1967 under the new plan.

There will be a 50 per cent increase in severance pay for those not eligible for normal pension benefits. In addition the acceptance includes a modification of the vacation plan and provides for a reduction from five years to three years to qualify for a two-weeks paid vacation.

Also a new plan of insurance will be installed to provide better benefits than in the past, according to a union spokesman.

Outagamie Unit Studies

County May Combine Sanatorium, Hospitals, Welfare Department

Consolidation of Outagamie County's Hospital and Golden Age Home, the sanatorium and general hospital, welfare department and connections with the Child Guidance Center is being studied by the county board's executive committee.

It was learned at Thursday afternoon's session of the executive committee that Supvs. Russell DeLaHunt of Kaukauna, chairman of the health, education and institutions committee, and Emmett Root, chairman of the board of public welfare, have been instructed to prepare a resolution to bring before the county board at its June 14 session.

Tentative plans call for setting up a new board which would control operations of all the institutions. The board would, in turn, hire a director who would be in charge of all operations. Under the director would be the persons in charge of the welfare department, hospital and Golden Age Home, sanatorium and general hospital and the county's representative to the Child Guidance Center.

The board also would probably hire a full-time psychiatrist who would work for the consolidated agency and have connections with all of its departments.

Under the proposed system, according to County Board Chairman Sylvester Esler of Appleton, the county would become eligible for several federal and state aids and grants.

Consolidation of the various agencies has been made possible under terms of a new law which has been passed by the state legislature. Milwaukee County, Esler said, has already put the new system into operation.

Comments made Thursday afternoon by some of the executive committee members indicate there still is some disagreement about the proposal, whether the new, consolidated department would be efficient and who would be in charge.

However, Esler stated, a resolution will be prepared and put before the board at the June 14 meeting.

City Renewal Explained at Clintonville

CLINTONVILLE — Meeting informally Thursday in the council room of the city hall, members of the common council and the planning commission heard Richard Starr of the Regional Urban Renewal Department explain urban renewal as it applies to this community

He recommended the appointment of a citizens' urban planning committee to explore this matter. He said that in order to go into such a program, a comprehensive plan, such as Clintonville has, is necessary, as are the adoption of a housing code, and the creation of a committee.

After the recommendation of a committee to go into this program, a grant must be applied for to make a study of a designated area. It would possibly take a year to complete the plan because of the details involved including surveys, visitations and interviews with market specialists.

"Very possibly," May Frank Sinkewicz said, "a committee will be appointed and that committee again will be contacted from time to time by Starr so that he may become familiar with the planning program."

Information Meeting

County Police Radio System Under Review

Representatives of several Outagamie County municipalities, agents for two electronics manufacturers and other officials met Friday with the county board's law enforcement committee to review proposed changes in the county police radio system.

The information meeting was designed to acquaint municipalities with what is being planned in the proposed change-over from low band to high band police radio operation.

It is expected that a resolution will be introduced in June seeking a green light for the first major change in the police communications setup in many years.

Cost Sharing

Law enforcement committee members are attempting to determine which municipalities will remain on the county radio system with the adoption of the new plan.

Much of today's meeting was concerned with working on cost estimates for each of the municipalities, based on a cost-sharing basis. It has been recommended by county officials that the municpalities purchase their own radio equipment through the county. In the past, the county provided the equipment.

Attending today's meeting were sheriff's and traffic department personnel, agents from Motorola and General Electric, representatives of Appleton, Kaukauna, Little Chute, Hortonville, Kimberly, New London and Seymour, and other county officials.

50th Day After Easter

Pentecost Observance Scheduled on Sunday

Sunday Christians all over the world will celebrate the third great festival of the Christian church — Pentecost, the 50th day after Easter, observed in commemoration of the descent of the Holy Ghost.

Pentecost is commonly known as the Birthday of the Christian Church when the Holy Ghost was sent by the Founder of the Church, to enrich it and dirlect its ambassadors and members throughout the centuries and in all lands.

The story of the descent of the Holy Ghost is preserved by St. Luke in the Book of Acts. "A sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind and it filled all the house where they (the Apostles) were sitting.

"And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire and it sat upon each of them. And they were filld with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance."

The Holy Spirit had been promised by Jesus as "another comforter" and came to strengthen the apostles after their nine days of prayer following the ascension.

It also commemorates the fruits and effects of this event, the completion of the work of redemption, the fullness of grace for the church and its children and the gift of faith for all nations.

In the 50th day after the Passover of the Jewish religion, the name Pentecost was given to the Feast of Weeks when the first fruits of the corn harvest were presented and in later times, when the giving of the Law of Moses was commemorated.

There are no special liturgical ceremonies apart from the holy sacrifice which is usually celebrated with festive splendor and solemnity. In the Latin Church the color of the liturgical vestments is red, symbolyzing the love of the Holy Spirit and the tongues of fire.

Serving as chairmen for this group are Harry Ballard, Mrs. Pearl Hornke, Mrs. Wilbert Vandenberg, Erlyn Miller, Mrs. Samuel Miles, Mrs. Alvin Golz, Mrs. Everett Rohde, Mrs. John Doerfler, Donald Burmeister and Diane Munger.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

No Man is an island, entire of itself;
Every man is a piece of the Continent,
a part of the main; . . .

—John Donne

This oft quoted phrase by John Donne is typical of one of his great themes in life, man's relation to his fellow man. An English poet, theologian and preacher, Donne had a faith that would not permit him to take an oath which probably kept him from getting his degree at Oxford University. He studied law at Lincoln Inn, then the Humanities. Noting his brilliance, King James I urged him to enter the Anglican clergy. He had been raised a Catholic. After much thought and years of theological study Donne entered the Anglican church in 1615. He was made chaplain to the King, and divinity reader at Lincoln Inn. In 1626 he became dean of St. Paul's Cathedral. He preached to the King and nobility, but was also popular with the people. In a time of great preachers Donne's sermons were unexcelled. They are still read today and he has perhaps reached his greatest acclaim in the Twentieth Century.

Your Problems

Parents Receive No Thanks For Sacrifice for Girl's Braces

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The letter from the 16-year-old girl whose parents could not afford to get her teeth straightened struck both my husband and me as very interesting.

Our daughter is also 16. We couldn't afford to get her teeth straightened either but we did it anyhow — at considerable sacrifice. We wanted Carol to have every chance in life. We felt we should do everything in our power to give her confidence.

The braces came off last week and now Carol has a radiant smile. But did she say, "Thank you, Mom and Dad," even once during the three years that we have been paying big, fat dental bills? Forget it.

The odd thing is that Carol is not alone. This letter could have been written by the parents of thousands of teen-agers all over the country. They are all selfish and grabby. Gratitude isn't the "in thing" these days — even when the gifts run into thousands of dollars.

Please print my letter and your comments. I'm sure other parents would be interested. — Mrs. Mary G

Dear Mrs.: Did you and your husband put braces on Carol's teeth so she would say,"Thank you, Mom and Dad?" Or because you didn't want her to go through life with crooked teeth?

One of these days Carol will say, "Thank you, Mom and Dad." And do you know when that will be? When she has children of her own.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a widow in my middle 50's. My father was an English professor and my husband was a polished gentleman, too. Our children were taught manners from the cradle. They grew up graciously and married well.

I have been going with a widower for almost two years. He has other women friends, mostly widows like myself. I had always thought this man considered me only a pleasant person to escort to civic and social affairs. When he asked me to marry him I was surprised.

The problem is this: The man is very successful in business. He's self-made, and like most businessmen who came up the hard way, he talks about himself a great deal. He lacks the social graces of my late husband and his grammar leaves much to be desired. I hold an executive position and frankly I would hesitate to introduce him to some of my better friends.

On the positive side, he is congenial, a non-smoker, a non-drinker and is a person of good character. What do you think? — Can't Make Up My Mind

Dear Mrs. Can't Make Up Your Mind: Do Mr. Self-made a big favor and say no. I would hope that he would then ask a woman who will introduce him to her "better" friends.

It would be a dirty trick to marry a man you obviously consider inferior. He'd be miserable and you would be miserable, too. Don't do it.

No teen-ager is as confident as he appears. Get clued in. Send for Ann Landers' booklet "Dating Do's and Don'ts," enclosing with your request 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

Yes, not with perfect accuracy, but with something far better than mere guessing. Election polls are sometimes wrong, but they often come very close to predicting how the vote will turn out. Likewise, it is becoming increasingly possible to predict how an individual will act and why. We can often tell in advance who will be friends with whom, and even who will marry whom, and why they should or should not. Rightly used, this ability to predict can help us to avoid many tragic mistakes.

Do nightmares occur in deep sleep?

No, says the eminent psychiatrist, Dr. Bernard Pacella. Nightmares, he says, come in light sleep usually at the beginning of the night. He explains this by saying that, to the subconscious mind, sleep is much the same as death. Fear of this death is one of the reasons for the nightmare. He found, also, that only one in 20 ever dreams in color, and even those do so rarely.

Has the employer largely disappeared from American life?

Yes — No —

Yes, says the famous commentator, Peter Drucker. Very few families have servants. A few independent business men have a few employees. But the vast majority of Americans, from the President on down, work for some institution or organization. The man who hires us is usually not an employer but a manager who is himself an employee. Owners of most industries are stockholders who do not run these industries. The decline of the employer is a major change in American life.

Shirt Tale Not So Funny To Young Man

A 17-year-old Appleton youth who went into a near-eastside business place seeking a job Thursday afternoon wound up being questioned by police — all because of the shirt he was wearing.

A woman called the Appleton Police Department at 3:20 p.m. and asked if police were looking for anyone from Nevada State Penitentiary.

She said a young man just left her place of business wearing blue jeans and a blue shirt with the state prison lettering across the back. She told police he walked east on E. Wisconsin Avenue.

Several policemen were dispatched and caught up with the youth a short distance from the business place. He told police a friend "printed up" two of the shirts.

The youth was advised by police that "due to the trouble caused by the shirt," maybe it would be a good idea if he did not wear it in public.

Depending On Slam May Hurt

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

It is usually correct to set up a long suit by taking your high cards first and making plays with the low cards later. If you follow this habit when there is no need to do so, you may live to regret it.

South won the first trick with the ace of hearts and tried to ruff a heart with dummy's deuce of spades. East overruffed and returned a trump, and South eventually had to give up another heart trick.

"Very bad luck," South complained, and everybody agreed that in a civilized community the hearts would break no worse than 4-2.

They also agreed that South could make the contract by drawing two rounds of trumps and then leading high hearts to make West cover. South would thus ruff out the nine and ten of hearts and could eventually give up a trick to the jack. South's five would draw West's four, and declarer's last two hearts would then be good.

It was all very complicated, but it depended on a 2-2 break in trumps. A much simpler plan would make the slam if South didn't insist on winning the first trick with the ace of hearts.

South should ruff the first heart in dummy with the deuce of spades and lead a trump to his hand. He can then ruff low hearts with the ten and queen of spades, after which he can get back to his hand to draw trumps.

Only now is it right for South to take a trick with the ace of hearts. This leaves West with only one heart. South gives up one heart trick and claims the rest with trumps and good hearts.

Daily Question

Partner opens with two hearts (forcing to game), and the next player passes. You hold: S 7 5, H K, D K J 9 3 2 C A Q 10 5 3. What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid three diamonds. You plan to show the clubs next, and probably will eventually suggest a slam of some kind.

Baltimore Police Told to Avoid Race References

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Acting Police Commissioner George M. Gelston has told his men to be courteous and avoid racial or ethnic references in addressing the public, or turn in their badges.

Gelston passed the word in a general order Tuesday saying "the dignity and professional status" of the police department is at stake.

"All citizens will be addressed by the appropriate title of Mr., Mrs. or Miss, and. . .no epithets will be used," he said.

"Any member of the department who feels he cannot abide by the above should submit his resignation," Gelston added.

To Your Good Health

Diaphragmatic Spasm Explained by Doctor

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What causes spasm of the diaphragm? —A.S.

Dear Doctor. After a dozen painful attacks, my trouble was diagnosed as a cardiac spasm with blockage of the esophagus, so that during the spasm I cannot swallow anything, even water.

Dr. Molner

These seem to occur only when I drink something alcoholic, even a small amount. Is there any treatment other than abstinence? — L.L.

These are different types of spasm but having in common somewhat similar areas. A spasm is an abrupt, involuntary contraction of muscles. Common hiccup is spasm of the diaphragm, and there are several causes — dehydration, irritation of the stomach, irritation of the diaphragm itself as from infection or following surgery. Less commonly, there are chemical derangements which can cause it.

Now let's move a few inches upward and discuss spasm of the esophagus, or gullet. This can occur anywhere along that organ, or even at the lowest point at which it enters the stomach. This is cardiospasm.

It can occur in highly nervous persons who often describe the condition as a "lump in the throat," although the trouble really is a bit lower.

Irritating food or drink can cause such a spasm — in the foregoing case, the irritating drink is alcohol. The treatment is obvious: Avoid alcohol. I do not know of any alternative.

Other familiar causes of spasm of the esophagus include hiatal hernia; defects of the esophagus such as narrowing, scarring, a diverticulum or pouch; and pressures from outside the organ. A chest tumor, for example, could press against it. In some individuals with "nerves," the spasm can be a hysterical manifestation.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 17 and 5 feet 4½ inches tall and weigh 104 pounds. I hope to be accepted by a nursing school, and want to put on some weight so they won't think I'm sickly.

I don't eat much for breakfast because my stomach has shrunk and eating a good balanced breakfast sickens me unless I am really hungry. I make up for it at lunch and dinner and eat like a horse, but I still don't seem to put on a pound. — P.K

The nursing school is interested in brains, not weight, so just see that your grades are good.

And stop making excuses that aren't pertinent. A nurse has to be a realist. If your stomach is "shrunk" at breakfast, it is "shrunk" at lunch and dinner, too. So that's not the real reason why you skimp breakfast.

My guess is that you've just acquired a habit and you can break it. Start eating a better breakfast, and that will help. Try four meals a day, adding one afternoon or evening snack.

3 star dash

Dear Dr. Molner: What is hemolytic anemia? What causes it, and can it be cured? — Mrs. H.F.M.

It is an anemia in which the red cells are very fragile and break up, or hemolyze.

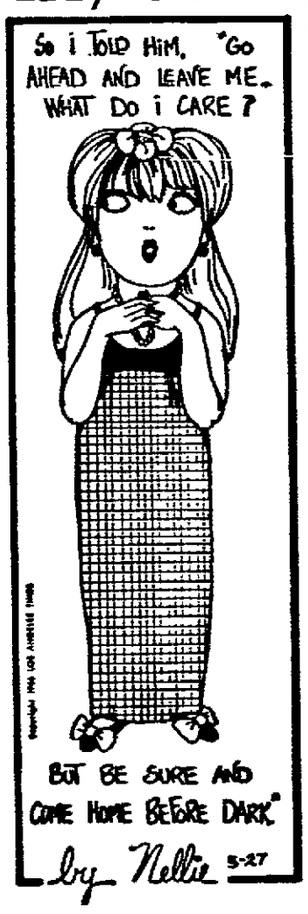

There are different types. Some are familial, or inherited, and removal of the spleen is curative. Other types result from poisoning or severe infection and treatment depends on correcting the underlying cause, plus supportive therapy.

"Tips On How to Stop Smoking," by Dr. Molner, will help you give up the habit. To receive a copy of the booklet, write to Dr. Molner in care of this newspaper, enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Pacific Islands Challenge Peace Corps

BY MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A challenging assignment awaits the U.S. Peace Corps in Micronesia—the far-flung U.S. Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

Peace Corps Director, Jack Hood Vaughn, plans to send as many as 750 volunteers into the islands where the United States is trying to help a population of slightly under 90,000 cope with the demands of modern society.

The 2,100 islands cover three million square miles in the western Pacific, about the size of the United States. But the land area is only 700 square miles. Only 96 islands have people on them.

Rainy Climate

The volunteers will work in a tropical, rainy climate on projects dealing with elementary education, community development, public health and works, secondary education, cooperative and credit union development, agricultral improvement, communications and transportation.

All these are fields in which the United States has been active since it took the islands from Japan after World War II and placed them under U.S. trusteeship in 1947.

The Peace Corps workers will find themselves occupied to a great extent with young people. Almost half the islands' population is under 14.

The visitors will have to deal with people who speak nine major languages with regional variations in dialect. Six are Micronesian—Yapese, Ulithi, Trukese, Ponapean, Kusaiean and Marshallese. There are also Chamorre and Palauan which are classified as Malaysian, and a ninth tongue—Polynesian.

Farming, Fishing

Farming and fishing are the main ways in which the Micronesians keep themselves in food.

The principal cash crop is copra—the dried meat of the coconut. Production of copra occupies the time of the largest number of Micronesians who want to make money, and it is the largest source of cash outside of government employment.

The Peace Corps workers are expected to help the Micronesians develop their fishing industry—a potential source for expanded income. One private corporation has signed an agreement for developing extensive fishing operations in Palau, including a commercial tuna freezing plant.

Some manufacturing is getting started in furniture, starches, and soap making.

Health Problem

The tourist industry is beginning to grow with privately owned cottages built at Palau and some hotels and motels on Saipan.

One of the major concerns is health. Tuberculosis is a big problem in the islands. It is being combatted by an organized controll program. A recent survey by the World Health Organization reported a shortage of qualified medical officers and nurses, and a need for more hospital facilities.

The emphasis on education is in the elementary and secondary phases. U.S. officials reported total school enrollment on the increase, rising from 20,813 in 1963 to 23,795 in 1964.

The invitation to send Peace Corps volunteers came from the Congress of Micronesia—the legislative body that represents the latest step in advancement to what eventually will be self-rule.

When self-rule will be attained is anyone's guess, but in the opinion of a visiting U.N. mission to the islands in 1964:

"Micronesia, once literally a geographical expression, is now wielding itself into a unified people. Out of six districts, nine languages and 2,000 islands scattered by situation and isolated by history, a national consciousness has begun to evolve.

Our Outstanding Universities

Americans who become irate over the demonstrations on university campuses, which have sometimes turned into riots, should note the report of the American Council on Education issued recently after a two-year survey.

"The best-balanced distinguished university in graduate school education" in the nation is the University of California at Berkeley where the really serious upheavals occurred a year ago and where there now is alleged to be a great many users of various narcotics and hallucinatory drugs. The University of Wisconsin is rated among the top 12 in over-all balance and was the leader in two areas.

The survey was made in five general categories: Humanities, social sciences, biological sciences, physical sciences and engineering; each category was broken down into several areas and universities were rated in each. The opinion of scholars at the universities was one of the main sources for conclusions along with a study of the effectiveness of the graduate programs. Other outstanding leaders were Harvard and Stanford.

Certainly a university's quality cannot be judged according to the number of riots, protests or amount of unconventional behavior that exist there. And yet it is quite likely that such matters do have something to do with the process of building strong educational departments, at least at the graduate level. For while the Berkeley riots were to a great extent the work of "non-students" and some of the "four-letter word" campaigns, nude parties and recourses to drugs are both silly and potentially dangerous to the individuals, they do indicate the existence of a freedom without which real intellectual probing cannot be pursued. Such probing also demands a discipline and a sense of order which appears to be lacking among many of the student headlinemakers but the freedom must be there first. If it is abused or at least misused by some, the Council survey results indicate that it also is important in the development of outstanding graduate programs. University professors are notoriously sensitive about anything smacking of infringement on their opinions and apparently they will move toward the campuses where winnowing and sifting is encouraged. Even the fact that high faculty salaries also exist at the top rated institutions does not change that impression if it does moderate it somewhat.

The Council survey stressed primarily the quality of the faculty in the various departments at the different universities. It would be interesting if a similar survey could be made about the quality of the student bodies.

Gov. Rockefeller Bows Out

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller says he has "taken himself out of the (1968 Republican presidential) convention, completely and without reservation."

These plain words should mean what they say, but presidential hopefuls have a way of explaining that time and events change meaning and that words said several years ago need not necessarily apply. Rockefeller himself started out running for the presidential nomination against Richard Nixon in 1960, then pulled out of the race suddenly, then by convention time made it clear he could be drafted if the convention did not want Nixon.

But this time, the words may have more weight. Rockefeller made his statement at a Long Island political rally, with Michigan Gov. George Romney and New York Sen. Jacob Javits on the platform. Rockefeller left the feeling that he was saying a Romney-Javits slate in 1968 would be just fine with him.

It may be that Rockefeller was addressing himself to the immediate problem of party unity in New York for his re-election campaign. Romney must turn in a convincing re-election victory in Michigan this fall to emerge as a true presidential possibility. But it may also be that the two governors learned something from the pre-convention months of 1964.

The memory of moderate Republican belief that somebody of party responsibility would head off the Goldwater bandwagon still is fresh. Rockefeller finally volunteered, and went down to defeat in the California primary. After that, the Republican convention was little more than a ratification of the Goldwater nomination.

While he does not regard himself as a candidate, Sen. Barry Goldwater said recently that he still believes the 1968 Republican convention will be dominated by the same conservative wing of the party which nominated him. For Republicans like Rockefeller and Romney, the vote totals from the 1964 landslide should make clear enough where their responsibility lies even at this early time.

Wilderness Area Preservation

The Wilderness Society, an organization dedicated to the preservation of the really wild and often almost inaccessible areas of the United States, has put out a brochure describing the Wilderness Act, which was signed into law by President Johnson about 18 months ago, and emphasizing that the job to preserve the wilderness areas is far from complete.

The interest in the remote mountain, desert and forest areas of the country and keeping them that way, has grown considerably in the last few years. As other types of recreational areas have increased —ski tows, dams to create lakes for motor boating and thousands of commercial projects all of which fulfill part of the need for recreational opportunities for Americans in their leisure time—there also has been concern that the really wild areas would soon be gone. As members of the Wilderness Society argue, this would be a serious loss and not only to the wild animals and birds which inhabit them.

There is something about the almost untouched wild reaches that seems to be needed by modern man. In fact, it appears that a great many of the people who take wilderness trips into the mountains and forests are the very ones who are the most concerned the rest of their lives with the business of modern life. They often are the business executives, the community committee chairmen, the charitable society workers, those most at the beck and call of the ever-ringing telephone or most concerned with the tragedies of war or hunger. Whatever their occupations, they need the serenity of the distant ranges, the silence of the hills or the awesome extremes of the deserts for personal rehabilitation.

There are many hiking and pack trips into the remote areas sponsored by organizations particularly in the west. Every year there are more participants who seem to feel privileged to hike ten miles a day over rough terrain or ride a strange horse into the mountains or a swirling boat into wild water. Every year there is a greater demand for more such trips. And while the other types of recreational opportunities also are needed, the really wild areas must be preserved.

The Wilderness Act of 1964 established a more unified federal authority over about nine million acres of land which were already in National Forest Wilderness and Wild Areas. It also provided for the orderly addition to the wilderness areas of National Forest Primitive Areas, National Park Areas and National Wildlife Refuge Areas. Some 60 such parcels have been proposed for addition to the Wilderness program and will be considered through public hearings in the next few years. There will be many competing interests, including those of mineral rights, for the areas and each one will have to be viewed as to its own merits. However, as the Wilderness Society points out, the two to three per cent of land proposed for the wilderness areas does not seem like too much in view of the needs of Americans in future busy years.

Poet William Cowper wrote almost two hundred years ago:

"Oh, for a lodge in some vast wilderness,
Some boundless contiguity of shade,
Where rumours of oppression and deceit,
Of unsuccessful or successful war
Might never reach me more!"

Few of us can afford such a lodge or really want that escape forever. But the opportunity for a week or two in "some vast wilderness" not only stimulates the spirit but the ability to return to try to solve the problems of every day.

Southern Tempers in Evidence

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for June 9, 1866.

One of the Grand Jurors who found the treason indictment against Jeff Davis was of a firm of ice dealers in Richmond. Of course, no one knew how he voted in the Grand Jury Room, but on his return from Court he received a large number of notices from his customers that they should want no more of his ice. The result was that he was forced to sell out his former large and prosperous business and close up shop.

The trial of Davis will not take place before October. The government has rejected the Norfolk indictment as worthless.

General Stoneman's report relative to the Memphis riots states that 24 Negroes were killed, eight of whom were discharged soldiers; and that the rioters were composed of the police, firemen as well as the rabble.

Plans were being made for the community observance of Flag Day. Glenn Arthur, exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was to deliver the Flag Day address at Pierce Park, Appleton Mayor Robert L. Roemer announced.

Orrin Tucker and his band with featured singer Wee Bonnie Baker were scheduled to appear at Nitingale Ballroom north of Kaukauna. Miss Baker gained her singing fame with the song "Oh, Johnny, Oh."

Paul Kleist, Appleton, was elected president of the District Epworth League when it met at Wausau. Miss Jean Pierre, also of Appleton, was named editor of the district publication.

Harry Zerbel, Appleton student at the University of Wisconsin, was one of the honor students to be given recognition at the Parents Weekend on the Madison campus. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Zerbel were planning to attend the ceremony.

Mrs. Adeline Indermuehle was president of the Appleton Homemakers Club. Mrs. O. V. Gasser was vice president, Mrs. Lester Weinandt Secretary, and Mrs. Arthur Koepke treasurer.

Mrs. Emrow Willenkamp was elected the new president of the Go-Getter Homemaker Club when the group met at the home of outgoing president, Mrs. Arnold Abel, route 1, Hortonville. Suggests Gold As Color for New Runway

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Appropriate color for new runway—gold. According to recent items in the paper the final cost of the crosswind runway at the new Catlin Folly Airport will be in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. If you sit down and figure it out, it comes to a figure of close to $13 per running inch, based on a length of 6,400 feet. No wonder the government is always broke, the way they spend money. And seems funny how the taxpayer was never given a chance to express himself in a referendum. But the voters in Appleton at the last general election ousted the chairman of the airport committee. You spoke for the entire citizenry of Outagamie county. Well done.

Mrs. Phyllis Schlafly Explains Her Remarks on Polygamy After 60

Editor, Post-Crescent:

A recent Post-Crescent editorial made a personal attack on me for my recent remarks against polygamy. I think your readers are entitled to know the full facts.

The recommendation that we legalize polygamy for those over 60 years of age was advanced in all seriousness by Dr. Victor Kassel, who works part time for the federal government, in a leading scientific journal called Geriatrics (April 1966, p. 214). Geriatrics is a 356-page scientific magazine full of scholarly articles "Devoted to the Diseases and Processes of Aging." Dr. Kassel solemnly discussed various aspects of his polygamy proposal including the effect that it would have on diet, living conditions, housework, grooming, cleanliness, and health insurance plans. He suggests that "any man over age 60 could marry 2, 3, 4, or 5 women over 60."

Geriatrics must have thought Dr. Kassel's suggestion merited favorable consideration by our community leaders to give this fantastic proposal five pages of serious treatment. The Associated Press must have thought Dr. Kassel's article worthy of serious consideration because it issued a long release on it dated April 15 which appeared in newspapers all over the country.

I believe that the immorality of Dr. Kassel's proposal should be promptly and publicly exposed — just as in Illinois on March 23 a high Democrat state official (Frank Porcaro) was publicly exposed as a bigamist. The polygamy proposal follows the familiar tactic of the "trial balloon" — just like subsidized wheat shipments to Red Russia, the various Fulbright proposals on Berlin, Cuba and Viet Nam, and, now, the "negative income tax." Unless a trial balloon is promptly shot down, a Washington bureau may allocate money to "study" it, and soon it may turn up as official policy.

American women believe in the Ten Commandments and oppose polygamy both for those over 60 and for those under 60. If it is "far right" to be against polygamy, then all Americans except a tiny group of Kassel-type planners must be considered "far right."

It is false to say or imply that I ever said that LBJ was advocating polygamy. The only thing I said about LBJ was that his youth corps program has so far cost the taxpayers $270,908 per "graduate" (according to Congressional statistics).

Convention Analysis: GOP Seems Stronger Than Two Years Ago

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — Republicans at their annual convention had plenty of time to compare notes about the outlook in their respective neighborhoods. Their common conclusion was that although there is nothing certain about the outlook for their party in the state elections in the fall, the prospects are considerably better than they were two years ago.

Wyngaard

Here is the way authoritative and realistic Republicans appraise the outlook today:

The re-election of Gov. Warren P. Knowles, without regard to the identity of the Democratic nominee, buy a comfortable if not a big margin.

The recapture of the State Assembly which slipped out of Republican control two years ago as a result of the extremely close margin of gubernatorial voting.

Senate Secure

The possible loss of a few State Senate seats, but not enough of them to threaten continued Republican rule of the upper house of the Legislature.

The probable loss of the attorney generalship, but a margin in that election close enough to eliminate some of the glamor associated with youthful Attorney General Bronson La Follette as a result of his spectacular victory of landslide proportions in 1964.

The recapture of the 6th District in eastern Wisconsin with comparative ease, a 50-50 chance of returning the 1st District in southern Wisconsin to Republican control, and a possibility of winning in the 2nd District that is good enough to make a strenuous effort worthwhile.

These are the assessments of the hard-headed men within the party, those who are aware that the most dangerous habit a politician can acquire is self-delusion. They are based on readings of the current condition of the Democratic Party. This includes an enervating struggle within that party for the leadership of its state ticket, some backlash about the Democratic national administration's difficulties with such powerful issues as inflation, and the Asiatic war, and the disclosure of Democratic money raising difficulties following that party's $100 per ticket dinner last week end.

Money-Raising

The revelation that Democrats regarded their money raising dinner as nearly a failure was a curious one. The sale of 700 tickets, as reported, would be accepted as excellent by the standards of previous years. But party officers publicly called it disappointing, and thus called attention to their dependence upon corporate contributions through the program book device which has recently been outlawed by a new federal law.

The incident has given a challenge to the Republicans, and Chairman Fish is determined to use it. His own $100 a plate dinner is scheduled for mid-June. He has informed his lieutenants that he wants to sell 4,000 tickets, which would be an all-time record, and that he intends to have his goal met.

If Fish succeeds where Democratic Chairman Louis Hanson failed it may mean that there are more faithful Republicans, or that there are more persons who believe the Republicans have a chance to stay in power in the statehouse, as Republicans would like to believe. Or it may mean, as Hanson would say, that there are more well-heeled persons willing to subsidize the Republican campaigns.

Consequences Important

The explanation, however, won't be as important as the consequences.

Both parties now concede, with a candor that would have been astonishing a decade ago, the relationship of an effective campaign to the party headquarters' bankroll. If the Republicans collect the sums they say they intend to collect, it will be a considerable extra factor in an election year outlook already fair to good for them on the basis of the performance of the term and the issues in the statehouse as they have emerged.

Girl, Boy Scouts Have Special Assignment at Memorial Service

Editor, Post-Crescent:

I believe the public should be informed about the Girl Scout and Boy Scout Honor Guard marching in the Memorial Day parade in Appleton so they will be aware of what is going on in their city.

A contingent of 60 Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts was organized in May of 1965. The purpose of this unit was to form a living circle around one end of the G.A.R. plot at the Riverside Cemetery during the Memorial Day services held there, while the National Guard did the same around the other end to alleviate the problem of children scampering about and breaking the solemnity of the service. In the past little children ran in to claim the empty cartridges from the firing squad's rifles and ran about unattended by their parents for one reason or another. Neither is desirable at this affair.

The scouts led the 4th division last year and marched to the cemetery where they performed this service. It was said that "this was the first year the children at the plot were ever under control" and it was asked that a unit of scouts carry on this project each year. Therefore, another contingent of Scouts will be doing the same this year. They will, however, be marching just behind the cavalcade of cars so they can assume their positions at the cemetery immediately following the dignitaries.

These scouts are selected from the older age levels of scouting, have outstanding ability as a scout in their troop, are interested in performing a community service, and are physically able to complete such a service.

Mrs. H. Peter Christensen will again be in charge of the Girl Scouts in this unit and Delmar Otis and Robert Blodgett will be in charge of the Boy Scouts. Mrs. Christensen and Mr. Blodgett will march with the unit.

Film Actress Tippi Hedren has worked only for two directors in her brief but spectacular career. Alfred Hitchcock saw her in a television commercial and picked her for his lead star in two of his recent thrillers. Then Charlie Chaplin chose her for one of his movies. She says it's hard to compare the two directors, although both are hard taskmasters and demand perfection. Hitchcock, she says, directs through conversation and vocabulary while Chaplin directs by showing actors what he wants. (AP Wirephoto)

HINTS FROM Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Our little daughter had a cut on her forehead, and we had a problem of removing the adhesive bandage without hurting her.

I discovered a way to pull off the tape easily and without any pain to her.

If you wrap a small piece of cotton around a toothpick and dip it in some oil or petroleum jelly, then gently insert the cotton-covered, greased toothpick under the edge of the tape and roll the pick, it will dissolve the sticky part just like magic.

No tears from our daughter!

I thought mothers of small tots might be interested.

Mrs. John Meehan

And I am sure they will be.

After all, when we can prevent a tear, that's the sweetest part of life.

Bless you!

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Try dipping frozen bread slices into the egg mixture for French toast.

The bread stays firm and does not get as soggy as soft fresh bread.

It thaws out quickly over the heat of the stove.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER?

Dear Heloise:

Ever hear of "popsicles?"

I save the leftover gravy and meat scraps, then mix a little bread or cereal to make it easy to form into small, round or oblong shapes. I put each one into a little wax sandwich bag, then in a special larger bag marked "Pal," and into the freezer.

Every day when the popsicle man stops, and my grandchildren are enjoying their frozen goodies, our little pooch gets his frozen "pupsicle" and he sure enoys it. He rolls it around and licks it all up.

The children all enjoy watching poochie have his treat along with theirs, and everyone is happy.

Dear Heloise:

This hint is for mothers who like to sun-bathe or go to the beach, but who have a small baby who can't be exposed to the direct sun.

Take an umbrella with you, open it out over the baby and anchor the handle in the ground or sand.

If needed, you can place a netting over the umbrella and clip (with clip-type clothespins) one or two rattles where baby can watch them.

Mother can get her sun right beside the baby and not have to worry.

Dear Heloise:

You often mention that housewives should pick thin-skinned citrus fruits — but I have discovered that very few women know how to tell a thin-skinned orange from a thick-skinned one!

The higher and bigger the bumps on a citrus fruit, the thicker the skin.

When the outside skin is nearly smooth, the peel will usually be very thin.

Regina

Dear Heloise:

Here's an idea from my husband for a camper's bathtub:

For years we have used a small wading pool inside our tent for bathing. We do not fill it with water (a little bit goes a long way) because it might splash over, when you step in.

For the smaller child's bath, the tub is turned upside down to make it shallower, and less water is used.

We carry along a large piece of plastic to place under the pool to keep the floor dry.

Try Spatter-Print Method And Make Nice Leaf Prints

BY CAPPY DICK

Leaf prints are fun to make by the spatter-print method. The easiest way to do it is to spray poster paint on colored construction paper with the help of a discarded toothbrush and a small piece of window screen as the boy is doing in Figure 1. The construction paper will absorb the tiny spots of paint produced by the toothbrush and the screen.

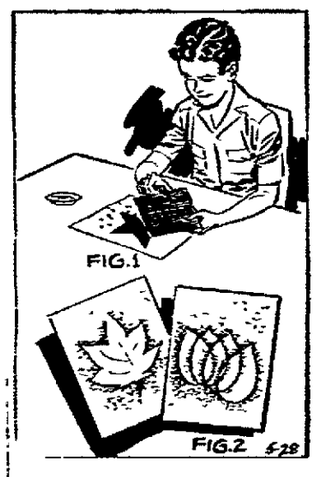

White poster paint is good to use. Very pretty effects can be had by adding an additional light spray of red, yellow or orange. Thin the poster paint in a saucer until it looks about like the consistency of milk. The easy way to do this is to put a teaspoonful of the paint in the saucer and add water.

To spatter-print a leaf, lay it on the construction paper in the exact position you desire (the leaf should first be pressed under a weight for a day to make it flat). Dip the old toothbrush into the saucer of poster paint, hold the piece of window screen several inches above the leaf, then rub the bristles of the brush across the screen. A fine spray of paint will fall on the leaf and paper. Let the leaf remain until the paint has dried, then lift it. It will be outlined with fine dots on the paper as in Figure 2.

The effect of one leaf overlapping itself many times, also as in Figure 2, is accomplished by spraying it in one position with one color of poster paint, then, when the paint has dried, moving the leaf slightly and spraying it with another color. Make as many overlapping imprints in different colors as you desire.

Workers Lose Hearing Without Realizing It

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Employes working near heavy machinery are prone to going deaf without realizing it, says Dr. Paul J. Michael of Pennsylvania State University.

He told the American Industrial Hygiene conference that it is difficult to persuade industrial workers to wear ear muffs because they experience no pain while losing their hearing.

Castro Claims U. S. Planning Cuban Attack

tions because it would not be accepted.

"We have often said we do not want a war. But we are not ostriches in believing that imperialist aggression can be stopped by sentimental exhortations to reason, right and peace," Castro said.

Repeat Claim

The prime minister also reiterated Cuban claims that U.S. forces at Guantanamo had shot to death a Cuban sentry last Saturday night while he was on guard on Cuban soil.

The Defense Department has said the Cuban was shot after he entered the base and failed to obey a command to halt.

The Cuban government claims the sentry, Luis Ramirez Lopez, was shot in the back while standing sentry duty at a concrete bunker on Cuban territory outside the base. A spokesman said the shot that killed Ramirez was fired from an American vehicle which was 90 yards away behind a double barbed wire fence on base territory.

Dedouble Efforts

Castro's brother, Armed Forces Minister Raul Castro, said at Ramirez' funeral that Cuba would redouble its efforts to aid guerrilla movements in Latin America, Asia and Africa in retaliation for the killing of Ramirez.

He also reiterated Cuban demands that the United States get out of Guantanamo. The United States holds the base under a 1903 treaty with the then Cuban government.

A U.S. Defense Department spokesman said Friday there have been 11 incidents such as the one on Monday night during the past five months. He said two intruders who got within the base boundary on March 11 may have ben wounded by buckshot before escaping across the fence.

A Cuban armed forces spokesman said there have been 93 incidents at the base this year and Americans have fired 248 shots at Cubans. In addition, American soldiers have intruded on Cuban territory and have thrown rocks and shouted insults at Cuban civilians, he said.

The State Department had no immediate comment on Castro's statements.

liar and betrayer," and was forced by church superiors to apologize to Roosevelt.

In 1934 he formed the National Union for Social Justice, which soon grew to five million members and was organized in every congressional district of the 30 most populous states.

More Extreme

As his views grew more extreme, he was silenced briefly by a new archbishop, Edward Mooney, in 1937.

Magazine Barred

He returned to the air in 1938 on a day of prayer set aside by American Protestants, Jews and Catholics for the Jews persecuted in Hitler's Germany.

In a sensational speech, Father Coughlin said Hitler was necessary to exterminate communism, "whose leadership, unfortunately is identified with the Jewish race."

"The Jewish bankers financed the Russian revolution and communism," he charged.

He was forced to give up his radio program by Archbishop Mooney in 1940. His magazine, Social Justice, was barred from the mails in 1942 on the charge that "it mirrored the axis propaganda line."

Since then, Father Coughlin has tended to his parish, whose $1 million church was built from contributions received in the 1930s.

He has spoken out recently only to endorse Sen. Barry Goldwater, Republican candidate for president in 1964, and to criticize some of President Johnson's Great Society programs.

FBI Arrests State Fugitive

CHICAGO (AP) — The FBI has arrested Clyde W. Mooney, 45, charged with escaping Feb. 22 while en route to Wisconsin State Prison at Waupun to serve a four-year sentence.

The FBI said Mooney escaped while being transported from California to Waupun to serve a sentence imposed in Kenosha, Wis., July 6, 1962, for taking indecent liberties with a girl.

A U.S. commissioner in Milwaukee, Wis., issued a warrant March 4 for Monney's arrest for unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Mooney, a native of Dixon, Ill., was apprehended Friday near Belvidere, Ill., the FBI said.

President Accepts Duffy's Resignation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson accepted today the resignation of Judge F. Ryan Duffy of the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Duffy, a former Democratic senator from Wisconsin from 1933 to 1939, has completed 27 years of service as a district and appellate judge. He is 77.

While retiring from active service, Duffy, a resident of Milwaukee, will assume the title of senior judge and remain available for duty on occasion.

Order Man To Pay for Use of Frank

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Kentucky man has been ordered to pay the government $3.480 for postage on mail dispatched under Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski's congressional frank.

Edward Wimmer of the National Federation of Independent Businesses at Covington, Ky., sent out at least 69,000 pieces of mail under the frank, the Post Office Department said Friday.

Timothy J. May, department general counsel, said the National Federation had not acted in accordance with O'Konski's instructions when the free mailing privilege was used.

May said the mailings contained speeches by O'Konski, a Wisconsin Republican, and Rep. George M. Rhodes, D-Pa.

Rusk Rules Out Pulling Troops From Germany

one of the great tasks of the Atlantic alliance is to begin a "real dialog" with the Communist world.

World Powers

"It is possible to ignore the displeasure of Germans over the division of their country," Erhard said. "It is not possible to ignore the confrontation of the world powers in central Europe which is bound up with this division."

Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield has proposed thinning out U.S. forces in Europe and an Associated Press poll of 75 senators shows 44 favored some reduction in the 225,000-man U.S. force in Western Europe under NATO. Six U.S. Army divisions are in West Germany.

Rusk said the NATO military situation and possible threats against Western Europe would be reviewed in the Brussels conference, but declared of American forces in Germany:

"We have indicated that our forces will remain there as long as they are needed and wanted. And we have also indicated to the NATO Council that we do not anticipate withdrawing major units from NATO."

Supports Rusk

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., whose National Security subcommittee has been holding hearings on NATO and the troop commitment issue, said he supports Rusk's views.

"Hopefully in time, there can be some reduction of American ground forces, but certainly this is not the time to discuss the possibility," Jackson said. "To reduce America's commitment to a token unit could bring NATO to the point of disintegration."

The continuing assault was launched Wednesday, and reports indicated allied troops initially had failed to flush out many Viet Cong. They reported killing 15 of the enemy and capturing 20 suspects in the first four days.

Also in Quang Ngai Province, not far from the Marine assault, American B52 bombers struck today at two suspected Viet Cong troop concentration areas. The targets were 30 miles northwest of Quang Ngai city.

In other war developments:

—A reinforced Viet Cong platoon attacked a unit of the U.S. 1st Cavalry's Airmobile, division Friday night but was driven off in a 30-minute fight after the cavalrymen called in artillery and illuminated the area with flares from planes. This action took place in the area of Operation Crazy Horse 20 miles north of An Khe and 265 miles northeast of Saigon.

—Other units of the cavalry division uncovered a Viet Cong cache Friday containing 42 recoilless rifles, 17,000 rounds of ammunition, 18,000 pounds of salt, 1,200 pounds of rice and a large quantity of medical supplies.

—The U.S. 25th Infantry Division ended a 12-day sweep of jungles 35 miles northwest of Saigon called Operation Wahiawa. The infantrymen reported killing 157 Viet Can in the operation and capturing 10 while sustaining light casualties themselves.

thing is a little shady."

He immediately reported the events to the Madison police department, but they referred him to the hotel detective, he said.

Lorge is chairman of the Senate Labor, Insurance, Tasation and Banking Committee, in which much of the battle over branch banking was fought.

Upon Zaborski's move for Senate Labor, Insurance, Taxavote defeating the bill, the measure was referred to the next printed calendar, which will be dated either May 31 or June 1.

But because the Senate is many days behind those calendars in actual performance, the bill will probably not again be considered during the 1965 Legislature unless it is decided to have another session in the fall.

Police Chase Whitetails In Menasha

MENASHA — Police have been kept busy the last two days chasing four-legged speeders.

Whitetail deer were reported seen in the Menasha Locks vicinity Thursday evening. Two police officers said they saw a trio of deer and tried to take a picture. The animals were too swift for the lens, however, racing out of camera range and swimming from the locks into an island in Little Lake Butte des Morts.

Friday morning about 8 o'clock, two deer ambled through the yard of Mrs. Fred Rohloff, 817 Appleton Road. Officers never got within sight of the animals, although two squad cars were dispatched to investigate. The last report from residents said the deer were heading for the lower lake near Ninth and Tayco streets.

Flame of Hope Candles Introduced in Oshkosh

United Fund Officials From Winnebago Communities Receive Tapers at Ceremony

OSHKOSH — A noon luncheon at Hesser's Supper Club here Friday introduced the John F Kennedy Flame of Hope Candle project to Winnebago County, calling to the attention of employers and the general public that the mentally retarded are good workers and a good investment. The event was sponsored by Winnebago County Work Adjustment Services, Inc

Pairs of the slender, white tapers were presented to John F. Dyer, president, Oshkosh Area United Fund, and to Nate Burstein, vice president, Neenah Menasha Community Chest

Leland J. Thompson, master of ceremonies, said the candles, made by the mentally handicapped, are tokens of their industry. He asked that kick-off events of the two united community fund drives feature them as symbols of achievement.

Thompson is a member of the board of Work Adjustment Services, Inc., and assistant manager of Sears Roebuck Co here is the only one in the Fox Valley to carry the Flame of Hope candles.

They are being made in a dozen demonstration workshops throughout the country, financed by a grant of $148,800 from the Vocational Rehabilitation Administration.

The nationwide project has been launched by the National Association of Sheltered Workshops and Homebound Programs in cooperation with the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., Foundation.

Mrs Nathan Wauda, Menasha, WAS president, said the organization is responsible for establishing and administering programs designed to train the mentally and emotionally handicapped and to establish community day care services for the retarded

Supplementary Programs

The county's two day care services, at Neenah-Menasha and Oshkosh, serve about 50 youngsters as supplementary to the half-day programs of the public schools, she said

Work Adjustment Services in the same cities are coupled with a sheltered workshop program for those too handicapped to have much hope of private employment

In all segments of WAS programming, Mrs Wauda said, the work is dedicated to the principle that all individuals, in recognition of human worth and dignity, are entitled to an opportunity to develop to full potential. "We believe," she said, "that the dignity of work in our work oriented society is as important to the handicapped person as to any other."

Duane Kelso, WAS director, said the Winnebago County program provides training for some 70 clients, ages 16 to 60 Training is through sub-contract jobs with token payments for participants

Holmes, Race Discuss Federal Programs for Schools, Libraries

Menasha Mayor Holds Lengthy Session With Congressman Over Aid Possibilities

MENASHA — Mayor Kenneth Holmes has a thick sheaf of papers giving information about available federal funds for library construction, and in addition expects to receive another packet, listing aid programs for library books and administrative costs and for school construction

The library board has been busy for several months looking for a site for a new library. Aid for school construction is also a timely subject, with a new grade school costing just under $1 million to be built on the city's north side

The information was part of what the mayor received during a session that took up the greater part of the day Friday with Rep. John Race, D-Fond du Lac, who accepted the mayor's invitation to discuss ways the congressman and the federal government could help deal with the city's problems

The talk centered generally around ways in which Menasha might take advantage of federal aid programs for several projects currently being considered

Besides the library they include the city's economic study and comprehensive planning survey, which apparently has hit a newly imposed ceiling on federal matching funds and is likely to have to be revised.

Other projects talked of Friday were a new bridge across Little Lake Butte des Morts to give the city a direct route to U.S 41, and plans to apply for federal open space funds to develop a quarry north of the city, first as a dump and later as a park

The mayor had at the end of the day a lengthy list of programs and agencies which he said he intended to begin investigating

The mayor, a former Republican party worker, and the Democratic congressman expressed satisfaction with their meeting Race promised he would if necessary, follow any Menasha applications through bureaucratic channels to increase their chances of approval

Race was told of the reported federal request that the city revise its urban planning and economic study proposals to reduce their cost to a level federal officials consider reasonable. Race offered consolation in that the NLA new fiscal year begins July 1 and Congress will be asked to restock the program's virtually depleted offers.

Race agreed with information published here quoting a state resource development official as saying applications for funds under the program far exceeded the amount of money available.

The congressman said library building aid is similarly limited, pointing out that the total of federal and state matching funds available has ranged slightly more than $1 million. "That doesn't go too far," he observed

The mayor took a number of opportunities to laughingly remind the congressman that the city was in need of help at the time Race is beginning his campaign for re-election Race responded smoothly to the jest, remarking at one point that he would be as happy to assist if it were not a campaign season.

Sheriff's Investigator Okayed

Outagamie to Hire 2 Traffic Patrolmen

Steps will be taken soon to hire two men for the Outagamie County traffic patrol and an investigator for the sheriff's department.

The county board's law enforcement committee voted unanimously Friday afternoon to recommend to the executive committee that two patrolmen be hired, by July if possible, to replace veterans Charles Steidl, who will retire Tuesday, and Ronald Decker who left the department for health reasons several months ago.

On a motion by John Schreiter of Appleton, the committee voted to authorize attendance for the two new men at the Wisconsin State Patrol training academy at Camp McCoy in August. The last five new patrolman hired by the county have attended the state patrol training session.

Investigator to Retire

Sheriff Calvin Spice reminded the committee that Lt. Jack Frenzl will retire as a county investigator July 1, and suggested that action be taken now to seek a replacement, since the retirement comes during the busy vacation period.

Frenzl indicated some time ago he intends to retire next month.

Schreiter moved to initiate action to have the position filled. Civil service procedures will be used in hiring a replacement, committee members said.

The committee also approved the appointment of Patrolman Stanley Arnold as acting sergeant in the traffic department.

The consenting vote came after a recommendation by Sgt. Lowell Veitch, acting department head, who stated that his office is short of supervisory help. The appointment will become effective June 1 and will be for not more than 60 days, according to Civil Service provisions.

Girl Cited as Final Winner in Safety Drive

Mary C. Howden, Student Nurse, Used Proper Practices

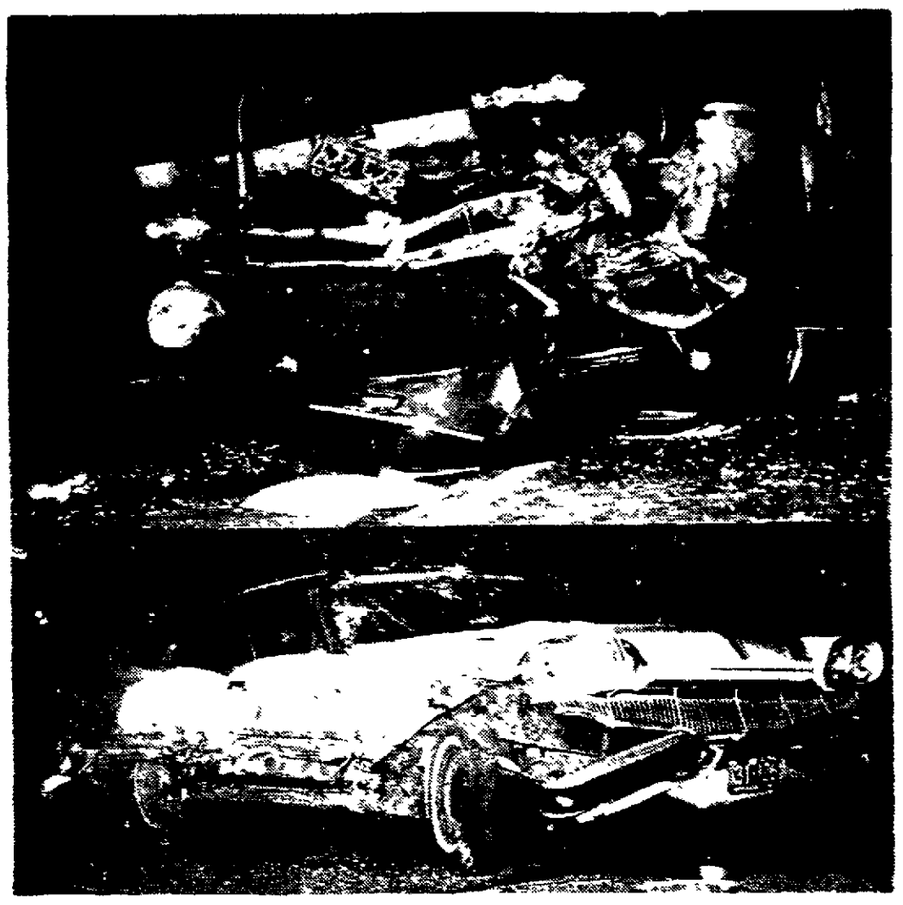

The final Appleton Safe Driver Recognition Award has been presented Saturday to Mary C. Howden, 28 River Drive.

Miss Howden, a student nurse at Mercy Hospital, Janesville, was named to the award after an Appleton patrolman saw her exercise caution while driving on E. Wisconsin Avenue and N. Lawe Street.

The award was presented on the final day of the 10-day vehicle and driver safety campaign staged by the Appleton New Car Dealers Association, several independent agencies and government units.

According to the observing patrolman, Miss Howden turned left off E. Wisconsin Avenue onto N. Lawe Street, at which time she signaled properly and yielded to oncoming traffic.

She then drove south on N. Lawe Street, slowing once for railroad tracks and again for a blind intersection. She repeated the safety procedures several more times while being observed by the patrolman, it was learned.

Graduate Student Percentage Shows Marked Decline at Lawrence University

Applications Drop 11.6 Per Cent Over Record High of 71.8 in 1965

A decline in Lawrence University students going directly to graduate school is noted in the class of 1966, according to Registrar Dorothy H. Draheim.

The class of 1965 achieved the high mark in graduate ambitions to date with 71.8 per cent of the men, 28.6 per cent of the women, for a class average of 51.3 per cent applied for graduate work. Of the latter, 47.7 per cent actually enrolled in graduate school last fall. The class of 1964 had 53.2 per cent apply and 44 per cent enroll during the fall following graduation.

At present, 60.4 per cent of the men of the class of 1966, 22 per cent of the women and a class average of 41.2 per cent have expressed interest in advanced work. Authorities assume that military service is partially responsible for the drop in men's applications.

41 Major Awards

In spite of the drops in percentage, the Lawrence class of 1966 is winning approximately the same number of fellowships and assistantships for graduate work. The class of 1964 won 30 major awards, the class of 1965 won more than 45, and the present count for 1966 is 41, with a number of applications still pending.

Of this year's group, 17 won awards in national competitions or from federal sources. The others were granted by individual universities.

Four Woodrow Wilson fellowships, pointing toward careers in college teaching, have been won by Ann Cogan, Belmont, Mass., who will study Russian literature at the University of Chicago; David Glidden, Batavia, Ill., philosophy at Princeton; Vance Kasten, Appleton, who will defer his Wilson for a year while enggaging in foreign study; and Jan Van Heurck, Appleton, who will study German literature at Yale University. Two honorable mention winners — Elizabeth Berg, Evanston, Ill.; and Beatrice Bigony, Delaware, Ohio — have received other scholarships.

Fulbright Winner

Vance Kasten, Appleton, is the only Fulbright winner in the class. He will study philosophy at the University of Freiburg, Germany, and hopes to begin graduate work at the University of Michigan upon his return.

Three have been named for Ford Foundation fellowships for the Cooperative Three-Year M.A. Program in the Humanities at the University of Chicago: Elizabeth Berg, Evanston, Ill.; Richard Nickel, Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Barbara Wetherell, Prairie Village, Kan.

William Johnson, Iron Mountain, Mich., has earned one of ten awards given nationally by the State Farm Companies Foundation. It is known as an Exceptional Students Fellowship. Johnson will study mathematics at Stanford University.

National Defense Education Act awards have been made to William Dawes, Marengo, Ill., to study mathematical economics at Purdue University; Edward Dusowsky, Watertown, who will study theater and drama at Tufts University; Neil Friedman, Milwaukee, political science at Stanford University; Sharyn Jacob, Grosse Point Woods, Mich., who will be enrolled in the biochemistry department of the Northwestern University Medical School; Richard Martin, Rochester, Minn., Spanish at the University of Washington; Teresa Smith, Houlton, Me., psychology at the University of Vermont; and a 1965 graduate — Fritz Fett, who worked as theater technician at Lawrence this year, and will enroll at Tulane in the fall.

Institutional Fellowships

Institutional fellowships have been given to Beatrice Bigony, Delaware, Ohio, anthropology at the University of Michigan; Joseph Bronstad, 321 W. Prospect Ave., Appleton, a National Teachers Seminary Fellowship in German at the University of Wisconsin; Mark Castallanet, Evergreen Park, Ill., Washington University School of Medicine; Ann Cerny, Chicago, Ill., special education at the University of Kansas; Thomas Countryman, Rockford, Ill., classics at the University of Minnesota; William Hochkammer Jr., Manitowoc, Northwestern University Law School; Jay Moore, Chicago, Ill., limnology at the University of Notre Dame; Nancy Nye, Excelsior, Minn., library science at the University of Illinois; Henry Rutz, Oshkosh, anthropology at the University of Hawaii's East-West Center; Jeffrey Steffen, Sheboygan, Spanish at the University of the Americas, Mexico City; Nancy White, Nevada, Mo., biophysics at Purdue University; and Julie Wolfert, Evanston, Ill., German at the University of Illinois.

Claim Mental Health Attack Is Half-Truth

State Director of Program Says 'Extremists' Chose Appleton to Launch Drive

"Extremists have apparently chosen the Appleton area to launch their frontal attack on mental health," Charles Bylsma, executive director of the Wisconsin Association for Mental Health, Madison, said here today.

Bylsma said the "Let Freedom Ring" recorded telephone message attacking mental health is an insult to the intelligence of Appleton residents but follows the typical right wing extremists."

"The recorded message," Bylsma said, "is loaded with half truths and misstatements."

Completely False

"Innuendos that the National Association for Mental Health program is dominated by Communists, that the movement is subversive and that groups like the American Legion and the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons question the national program are completely false."

"In fact," he said, "the American Legion and the American Medical Association, national organizations which endorse the association's programs, are leaders in promoting mental health nationwide."

"People like Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller, President of the National Association for Mental Health, and Wisconsin residents like Vince Lombardi of Green Bay, Dr. H. Kent Tenney, Jr. of Madison, and Mr. William Kellett of Neenah, all active in the mental health movement in Wisconsin, are not Communist dupes," Bylsma said. "In fact they are respected community leaders interested in the welfare of all citizens."

Endorsed by Goldwater

Barry Goldwater, 1964 presidential candidate, in a recent speech in Arizona completely endorsed mental health association programs. He urged all Americans to get information about mental illness and mental health from local associations and to support local drives for mental health programs and services in the community to fight mental illness.

Goldwater, speaking in his capacity as 1966 campaign chairman in Phoenix called opponents of mental health as "extremists elements who see communists under every bush."

Bylsma urged all citizens of Appleton and surrounding areas to refute the Let Freedom Ring illogical attack by contacting the Outagamie Association for Mental Health and offering to help its current programs and campaign for funds.

Union Members Accept 2-Year FWD Contract

26 Cent Total Hike; Retirement, Vacation Agreement Okayed

CLINTONVILLE — Members of local 815 Allied Industrial Workers, AFL-CIO, voted acceptance of a two year agreement with the FWD Corp. retroactive to May 23 at the meeting Friday afternoon at the high school gym.

This action follows rejection of two contract proposals earlier this month. The negotiations involve about 1,100 union members.

Accepted agreement provides for 16 cents an hour pay increase retroactive to May 23 with an additional 10 cents increase effective May 22, 1967.

Hourly classification schedules will be revised to provide for more uniformity in rate increases and the schedules will be shortened considerably to reduce time necessary for every employe to meet the maximum of each labor grade.

Retirement Plan

An amendment to the FWD retirement plan is included which provides an increase for monthly benefits from $1.25 to $1.75 for each year of previous service. Another increase to $2 will become effective Sept. 30, 1967 under the new plan.

There will be a 50 per cent increase in severance pay for those not eligible for normal pension benefits. In addition the acceptance includes a modification of the vacation plan and provides for a reduction from five years to three years to qualify for a two-weeks paid vacation.

Also a new plan of insurance will be installed to provide better benefits than in the past, according to a union spokesman.

Adopted in 1923

Rules for Flag Display Cited by National Code

Scores of "Stars and Stripes" will fly this Memorial Day weekend as residents of the Appleton area pay tribute to the nation's war dead. The flag of the United States will be displayed in homes, places of business, parades, and at memorial ceremonies

The Flag Code, as adopted by the National Flag Conference in 1923, lists several rules which remain unchanged regarding proper methods for displaying the flag.

During a flag-raising ceremony, or when a flag passes in a parade all persons should face the flag and stand at attention. Those persons wearing a military uniform should render the military salute.

Civilian Salute

Men in civilian attire should remove the hat with the right hand raising the hat shoulder high and placing the hand over the heart. Men without hats should salute in the same manner. Aliens should stand at attention. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart.

Saluting the flag in a moving column should be done at the moment the flag passes.

When the National Anthem is played and the flag is not displayed, the code says all present should stand facing the direction from which the music is coming. When the flag is displayed, all present should face the colors and render the proper salute.

Persons wishing to display the flag at home are reminded to do so only from sunrise to sunset; to avoid letting the flag touch the ground or floor; and the flag should never be used as drapery.

Four Dens From Cub Pack 72 at Badger School, were presented flags and shown proper methods of display by the Appleton American Legion Wednesday night. Helble, as Wayne Hildebrand, den 4; James Davis, post commander; Greg Melzer, den 2, and Robert Jewell, den 3, observe the lesson. (Post-Crescent Photo)
